her, having seen Mary, that she rose quickly, and came out, walked after her, thinking to themselves, that she is about to depart to the sepulchre, that she may weep there.

³² Mary then having come to the place in which Jesus was (imperf.); and having seen him, threw herself down at his feet, saying: 'My Lord, if thou hadst (imperf.) been here, my brother would not have died.'

³³ Jesus then having seen her weeping, and the Jews also who came with her weeping, was pained in the spirit, and was troubled.

³⁴ And he said to them: 'Where laid ye him?' They said to him: 'Lord, come and see.'

³⁵ And his eyes shed (lit. gave) tears.

³⁶ The Jews then were saying: 'See how he loveth him.'

³⁷ But some of them said: 'Was it not possible for this (man), who opened (the) eyes of the blind from birth, that he should not permit this other (one) to die?'

³⁸ Jesus then had compassion in himself, he came to the sepulchre. Now it was a cave, and there was a great stone put (lit. given) against it. ³⁹ Jesus said to them: 'Take (away) this stone [there]:' Martha, (the) sister of him who died, said to him: 'Lord, he stinketh (ⲁϥ), for (it is) his four(th day) to-day.' ⁴⁰ Jesus said to her: 'Said I not to thee, that if thou shouldest believe, thou wilt see (the) glory of God?' ⁴¹ They then took away the stone from the mouth of the sepulchre. And Jesus lifted his eyes up, and said: 'My Father, I give thanks to thee, because thou heardest me. ⁴² And I was knowing that thou hearest me always; but because of this multitude which surrounds me I said (it), that they may believe, that thou sentest me.' ⁴³ And having said these (things), he cried out with a great voice: 'Lazarus, come forth.' ⁴⁴ And he who died came forth, being bound as to his feet and his hands with grave-clothes, and his face bound with a napkin. Jesus said to them: 'Unloose him, send him away, let him go.'

⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees, they told to them that which Jesus did. ⁴⁷ The chief priests then and the Pharisees assembled an assembly, and they were saying: 'What shall (lit. will) we do? many are the signs which this man doeth. ⁴⁸ If we should permit him thus, all will believe him, and the Romans will come, they will take away our place and our nation.' ⁴⁹ But one of them answered, his name being Kaiapha, being chief priest for that year. He said to them: 'Ye know not anything; ⁵⁰ nor reason ye to yourselves, that it is profitable for you, that (one) man alone should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.' ⁵¹ Now he said not this from himself; but because he was (imperf.) chief priest as it is written: '15 Fear not, Daughter of Sion; behold, thy King cometh mounted on a colt (the) foal (lit. son) of an ass.' 16 And these (things) his disciples knew not at first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that they did these (things) to him. 17 The multitude then, which was (imperf.) with him, was bearing witness, that he called Lazarus from the sepulchre, and raised him from the dead. 18 Therefore the multitudes were coming forth to him, because they heard that he did this sign. 19 The Pharisees then said to one another: 'We see that we shall (lit. will) not gain anything; lo, the whole world went after (lit. behind) him.'

20 Now there were Greeks of them who came up to (the) feast that they might worship. 21 These then were coming to Philip the man of Bethsaida of Galilee, and they were beseeching him, saying: 'Our Lord, we wish to see Jesus.'

went. ³⁶ While ye have the light, walk in the light, that ye may become sons of the light.'

Jesus having said these (things) went, he hid himself from them. ³⁷ But having done so many (lit. these multitudes of) signs before them, they believed him not. ³⁸ That (the) word of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he said: 'Lord, who believed our voice? and to whom was revealed (the) arm of the Lord?' ³⁹ Therefore it was not possible for them to believe, and Esaias said again: '⁴⁰ He hardened their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they might not see with their eyes, and understand in their heart, and might return to me, that I might cure them.'

⁴¹ These (things) said Esaias, because he saw (the) glory of God, and spake concerning him. ⁴² Nevertheless many of the rulers also believed him: but they were not confessing him because of the Pharisees, lest they should be put out of the synagogue: ⁴³ for they loved (the) glory of [the] men rather than (the) glory of God. ⁴⁴ And Jesus cried out and said: 'He who believeth me, believeth (ΑΥ)

I said these (things) to you, (the) grief filled your heart.

⁷ But (the) truth I say to you; it is profitable for you that I go. For unless I go, the Paraclete will not come to you. But if I should go, I will send him to you.

⁸ And if that (one) should come, he shall convict the world concerning (the) sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgement. ⁹ Concerning (the) sin indeed, because they believe me not; ¹⁰ and concerning righteousness, because I will go to the Father, and ye will see me no longer; ¹¹ and concerning judgement, because (the) ruler of this world hath been judged. ¹² I have yet many things to say to you, but ye will not be able to bear them now.

because my Father is with me. ³³These (things) I said to you, that peace might be to you in me: ye have tribulation in the world, but be of good cheer; I conquered the world.'

XVII. These (things) Jesus spake, and having lifted up his eyes to (the) heaven, he said: 'My Father, glorify thy Son, that thy Son may glorify thee. ²As thou gavest to him authority over all flesh, that to every one (lit. that) whom thou gavest to him he should give to them eternal life. ³And this is the eternal life, that they may know thee the one true God alone, and him whom thou sentest, Jesus Christ. ⁴I glorified thee upon the earth, having finished the work which thou gavest to me, that I might do it. ⁵And now glorify thou me, my Father, with (apud) thee in the glory which I had (imperf.) at first, before the world was, with thee. ⁶I manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest to me from the world: thine they are, and thou gavest them to me, and they kept thy word. ⁷And now they knew that all things which thou gavest to me are from thee. ⁸Because the words which thou gavest to me, I gave to them; and they also received them, and they knew truly that I came from thee, and they believed that thou sentest me. ⁹I pray for them: I was not praying concerning the world, but concerning them whom thou gavest to me, because they are thine. ¹⁰And they who are mine are thine; and I was glorified in them. ¹¹And I am no longer in the world; but these, they are in the world, and I come to thee. My Father, the holy (one), keep them in thy name which thou gavest to me, that they may be one as we are. ¹²When I was (lit. being) with them I was keeping them in thy name which thou gavest me. I kept them, and not any of them perished except (the) son of (the) perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. ¹³But now I am coming to thee, and these (things) I speak in the world, that my joy may be complete in them.

cedar trees, the place in which there is a garden; into this entered Jesus and his disciples. ²And Judas also, who was to deliver him (up), was knowing that place, because many times Jesus assembled thither with his disciples. ³Judas then having received the multitude and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came thither with lanterns and torches and weapons. ⁴And Jesus knowing all things which come upon him, came forth, he said to them: 'For whom sought ye?' ⁵They answered, they said to him: 'Jesus of Nazareth.' Jesus said to them: 'I am (he).' Judas, who was to deliver him up, was standing with them. ⁶When then he said to them: 'I am (he),' they fled back, and they fell down. ⁷Again he asked them: 'For whom sought ye?' And they said: 'Jesus of Nazareth.' ⁸Jesus answered: 'I said to you, that I am (he); if ye sought for me, send these away, let them go;' ⁹that the my servants (lit. officers) would have fought (lit. given) for me, that I should not be delivered to the Jews; but now my kingdom is not of (ΘΔ) the world.' ³⁷ Pilate then said: '(Art) thou a king then?' Jesus answered: 'Thou sayest that I (am) a king. For I was born for this work, and therefore I came into the world for my bearing witness to the truth; all who are of the truth hear my voice.' ³⁸ Pilate said to him: 'What is the truth?' and having said this, again he came forth to the Jews, he said to them: 'I find not any guilt in this man. ³⁹ But your custom is that I should release one to you in the passover, wish ye then that I should release to you (the) king of the Jews?' ⁴⁰ And they all cried out, saying: 'Release not this (man); but release Barabbas.' Now this Barabbas was a robber.

XIX. Then Pilate took Jesus, he scourged him. ² And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns, they put (lit. gave) away, take him away, crucify him.' Pilate said to them: 'Should I (conj.) crucify your king?' The chief priests answered: 'We have no king except Kesar.' ¹⁶ Then, therefore (lit. then), he delivered to them Jesus, that they might crucify him.

They took then Jesus. ¹⁷ And he carrying his cross, came to the place which is called 'the skull,' but in Hebrew 'Golgotha;,' ¹⁸ the place in which they crucified him: and they crucified two robbers also with him on this side and this side of him, and Jesus in (the) midst. ¹⁹ And Pilate wrote a title also, and set it upon the cross. And it was written: 'Jesus of Nazareth, (the) king of the Jews.' ²⁰ And many of the Jews read the title, because the place in which Jesus was crucified was (imperf.) near to the city. And it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, in Greek. ²¹ The chief priests of the Jews were saying then to Pilate: 'Write not, "(The) king of the Jews," but that he said:

“I am (the) king of the Jews.”’ ²² Pilate answered: ‘That which I wrote I wrote.’ ²³ The soldiers then having crucified Jesus, took his garments, they made four portions, and the coat also: now the coat was seamless, woven from above all of it. ²⁴ They said then to one another: ‘Let us not rend it, but let us cast lot for it, to which of us it is to belong.’ That the scripture might be fulfilled, saying: ‘They divided my garments among them, and they cast lot for my raiment.’ These (things) then the soldiers did. ²⁵ But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and (the) sister of his mother, Mary of (lit. that of) Kleopa, and Mary the Magdalene. ²⁶ And Jesus having seen his mother, and the disciple whom he was loving, standing (by), said to his mother: ‘Lo, thy son!’ ²⁷ Then he said to the disciple: ‘Behold, thy mother!’ And from that hour the disciple took her away to his house.

things were finished, that the scripture might be finished, he said: 'I thirst.' ²⁹ And there was a vessel full of vinegar set down; they filled a sponge with vinegar, they placed it upon hyssop, they put (lit. threw) it by his mouth. ³⁰ When then Jesus tasted the vinegar, he said: 'It is (αϣ) finished:' and having bent down his head, he delivered (up) the spirit.

³¹ The Jews then, since it was the Preparation, that the bodies might not stay upon the cross on (the) sabbath—for great was the day of that sabbath—they besought Pilate, that they might break their legs, and take them away. ³² The soldiers then came, and (of) the first indeed they brake his legs; and they brake those of the other who was crucified with him. ³³ But having come to Jesus, they found him—he was already dead; they brake not his legs. ³⁴ But one of the soldiers pierced his side with his spear; and immediately came out water and blood. ³⁵ And he who saw bare witness; and true is his witness; and great fish, being a hundred (and) fifty-three in it; and though (lit. being) this number (was) in it, the net was not rent. ¹² Jesus said to them: 'Come, eat.' And there was (imperf.) not any of his disciples (who) dare ask him: 'Who (art) thou?' knowing that it is the Lord. ¹³ Jesus then came, he took the bread and gave to them, and the fish thus. ¹⁴ And this is (the) third time that Jesus manifested himself to his disciples, having risen from the dead.

¹⁵ When then they (had) eaten, Jesus said to Simon Peter: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me (more) than these?' He said to him: 'Yea, my Lord, thou knowest that I love thee.' He said to him: 'Feed my lambs.' ¹⁶ Again he said to him (the) second time: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me?' He said to him: 'Yea, my Lord, thou knowest that I love thee.' He said to him: 'Feed my sheep.' ¹⁷ He said to him again (the) third time: 'Simon, (son) of John, lovest thou me?' Peter was grieved because he said to him (the) third time: 'Lovest thou me.' And he

Jesus said not to him, that he will not die; but if I should wish to leave him until I come, what is it to thee? ²⁴This is the disciple who bare witness of these (things); and he wrote them; and we know that his witness is true. ²⁵And there are many other things again which Jesus did; these, if they had been written one by one, I know that the world would not be able to contain the books which would have been (lit. will be) written.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE

PAUL DE LAGARDE under his former name of Boetticher, in 1852, edited the Acts of the Apostles from four MSS., of which Curzon 124 (called by him Curetoniani) and Tattam's (now Oriental 424) had been collated by Schwartz: the other two in the Paris Library (now 65 and 66) were collated by himself. In the same year he published the Catholic and Pauline Epistles, using the two Paris MSS. of the Acts, which also contained the Catholic Epistles, and another Paris MS. containing those of S. Paul. Besides these he had the collations of the Curzon and Tattam MSS., and further a MS. divided into two volumes of the Berlin Library for the Epistles of S. Paul. These two volumes, however, did not contain the Epistles to the Galatians, Ephesians, and Philippians, but he was able to use a copy of the Ephesians and Philippians which had been made by Theodore Petraeus, of Leyden, from a MS. now at Copenhagen. This has been found to contain the Epistle to the Galatians, not copied by Petraeus (1660), and with the other two volumes formed originally one codex. Thus Lagarde worked from four MSS. for the Acts, four for the Catholic, and four for the Epistles of S. Paul. To his critical text he gave very few variants, on the average not more than a single line of apparatus.

Wilkins, who had already published the whole New Testament in 1716, constructed his text from the three Bodleian MSS., two in Paris, and two in the Vatican. None of those in Paris or Rome can be identified with certainty. The Acts and all the Epistles were contained by one in Paris and two in Rome, and one of these last was dated A.M. 1220 (1504). This may have been Vatican 15, though Wilkins styles it N^o. 5. To one of the Paris MSS. he ascribes the number 331, saying that it contained the Epistles of S. Paul, but the

MS. in which that number is now seen has the Acts and Catholic Epistles also. As for the Apocalypse he mentions one MS. at the Vatican bearing the early date A.M. 896 (1180). Neither of the Apocalypse MSS. at the Vatican are dated, and both appear to be of the fourteenth rather than the twelfth century, to which may belong the Petersburg codex. Wilkins only gave a few variants in his introduction.

Tattam edited the whole New Testament for the Society for the Promotion of Christian Knowledge, but the MSS. which he used were not described, and he gave no variant readings or notes of any kind.

The present edition depends upon thirty-four MSS., including in this number three lectionaries already used in the Gospels, and counting a few fragments in the British Museum as one MS. Of this number nineteen contain the Pauline Epistles, thirteen the Catholic Epistles, thirteen the Acts, and eleven the Apocalypse. All have been carefully collated by the editor except one, of which only the Epistles to the Romans and 1 Corinthians were collated. In this somewhat arduous work he was much helped and encouraged by the kindness received from librarians: and to the names already mentioned in the Preface to vol. i, he wishes gratefully to add those of Dr. Ehrle, of the Vatican, and Kūmmus (Hēgoumenos) Ṣalīb of Dayr al Muḥarraḳ, who kindly entertained him at his monastery for thirteen days. Several more MSS. of recent date have been seen in Egypt, but in Rome or Petersburg there seem to be no others.

Though Lagarde worked with scanty material, and expressed to the editor at Göttingen his regret that he had not examined all the MSS. of S. Paul in Paris, yet Tischendorf was able to obtain from his scholarly edition a sufficiently correct estimate of the Bohairic (cop) readings; and while a more thorough investigation has revealed an interesting variety among the MSS., and thrown some light on the history of the Version, it will not seriously affect the evidence which the Version affords for criticism of the Greek text.

In the Acts of the Apostles, where such evidence is more particularly desired, the Bohairic MSS. are nearly always unanimous in support of the text of Westcott and Hort, as already set forth in Dr. Sanday's Appendix to the Greek Testament. MSS. Γ and O occasionally exhibit Saidic influence, which is not surprising, since Γ was collated in the Said itself, near Assiout, and O has a colophon referring to an exemplar in that province. F is perhaps more strongly coloured by the dialect of Upper Egypt, though it has no documentary connection with the Said.

TEXT.

The text of British Museum Oriental 424, formerly in the possession of Tattam, has been given without alteration as far as possible for the Epistles and Acts; being almost the earliest dated MS., and containing a colophon which declares that it was copied from a very accurate exemplar of the preceding century, probably the continuation of the Gospels MS. H₁. According to the rule of the Coptic Church, which reads the Apostle, i.e. S. Paul, the Catholic, i.e. the Catholic Epistles, and the Acts in this order, the MSS. always begin with the Epistles of S. Paul, upon which the Catholic Epistles and Acts follow in regular succession, and this order has been kept in the text. The Apocalypse is edited from the interesting Curzon MS., the earliest dated of that book.

TRANSLATION.

In the translation only one important change has been made. Contrary to the method employed in the Gospels, all words in italics represent Greek words used in the Coptic. The word is usually, but not quite always, the same Greek word in some known text. A few common conjunctions are not in italics, and further the italics must not be regarded as necessarily implying that the whole of the word is Greek, but only the Greek part of a word which may have Coptic formatives. Regardless of style the conjunction ⲁⲉ is always translated 'but,' and when ⲁⲗⲗⲁ is used an ⲁ follows 'but' in brackets. The word 'Greek' itself when translating ⲟⲩⲉⲛⲓⲛ should have been printed in italics, though its Saidic form figures in Professor Steindorff's glossary among Coptic words and is rendered 'Ionier.'

The same arrangement has been used corresponding strictly to the verse divisions of the MS., occasionally interfering with the sense. Sometimes a rather false appearance of paragraphs has been given when only a verse-beginning occurs. All proper names in the Acts are transliterated.

CRITICAL APPARATUS.

One slight alteration will be found in the apparatus where a sign of interrogation has been often placed when comparison with the Greek order of words is indicated, such comparison being nearly always very precarious.

Though the Apocalypse is found in two MSS. with other books, it usually forms a book by itself, and the MSS. of it have been classified separately. The texts of Lagarde and Tattam are marked by L^s and T^t.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MANUSCRIPTS.

All the following MSS., except C, were collated throughout by the editor in 1898-1900.

- A₁ 1. A₁ (Lagarde t) Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., London Brit. Mus. Oriental 424 (Greg. 4), imperfect (the volume is bound in two parts, 1° [Rom.-Col.] of which the latter half is injured and patched, much of the text being lost; 2° 1 Thess. to end, in nearly perfect condition of text, less cut than 1°), A. D. 1307, A. Mart. 26 Babah 1024, paper, foll. 217 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 33, 1° 25.1 × 17.8 cm., text 21 × 14.3 cm., 2° 26 × 19 cm., text 21 × 14 cm.; writing by the same hand as H₂^{evv}; punctuation, rough red ⚡; l. c. three lines of text or more, yellow, red, and white, the letter † very much prolonged; s. c. red for ch. small, and black reddened; ch. great marked by two red lines of text and small black uncials, ch. small by larger red uncials; foliated on verso with uncials, signed with Ar. name of ep. &c.; quire ending &c. 17 X7(XH) KE OΘC (7C ΘC) with usual ornament; orn. scarcely any except yellow spaces and headpieces, which probably represent the gold ground of painting in Gabriel's MS. the exemplar.

Text practically the same as A₂, usually agreeing also with E₁, has a few glosses, contemporary corrector marks with red circles letters to be omitted; marginal references to quotations in red Arabic, quotations pointed in the Acts.

Bound in recent purple morocco, the cover has inside 'OR. 12. Ah.,' A₁ the first (recent) page OR. 424 'B^t at Dean Tattam's sale 16 June, 1868.' fol. 1 (restored) watermark P P 'Rev H Tattam D D,' fol. 2 (rest.) w.m. three crescents and , list of epp. of 1^o.

p. 3^a ep. Rom. begins with yellow hp. enclosing label with red Arabic 'The epistles of Būlus the apostle'; below is $\text{C}\overline{\text{N}}\text{N}\ \Theta\text{EW}$ red Coptic inscr. with Ar. 'The first epistle to the people of Rome'; one line of large red ornamented letters, one line of black between two lines of red archaic letters. p. 26^a subscr. in red letters, narrow yellow hp., C. inscr. and Ar. 'The first ep. of Corinth and it is the second,' one line of tall red and two of ordinary red letters; thus also for 2 Cor. p. 49^b, Gal. p. 64^b, Eph. p. 72^a; p. 80^a ep. Philip. three lines of ordinary red letters. fol. 91 (rest.) w.m. three crescents, list of epp. of 2^o pp. 92^a, 97^a, 99^b, 117^a, 123^a, 127^a, 1 and 2 Thess., Heb., 1 and 2 Tim., Titus, Philem. begin as ep. Col. p. 129^b ep. Philem. ends with blk. subscr. lengthwise in margin, and original collation note for Coptic and Arabic. p. 130^b epp. Paul end with general subscription in tall black archaic letters.

Then follows black Arabic statement : كتب هذه الرسائل المقدسة من نسخة ذكر فيها انها نسخة محررة نقلت من نسخة بخط الاب الفاضل انبا يوحنا اسقف سمندو المعروف بالسمنودي وهذه النسخة المنقول منها بخط البطريك انبا غبريال وكان يومئذ حين كتابتها قسيس وقال انه اجتهد في تحريرها وتصحيحها قبطياً وعربياً حسب ما تصل اليه الطاقة البشرية وكان اهتم بها الارخن المسيحي النشو ابو شاكر بن السني الراهب ابن المهذب وهو ابن الرثبة و ذكر ان كمالها كان في العاشر من كيهك سنة ستة وستون وتسع مائة للشهدا الموافق لمستهل رمضان سنة سبع واربعون و ستمائة للهجرة ونقل ذلك لنفسه بخط يده العبد الدليل الخاطي يونس المسمى ابو سعيد بن سيد الدار ابن ابو الفضل المسيحي وكان كماله في يوم السبت تاسع بابه سنة الف واربعة وعشرين للشهدا موافق لسابع ربيع الاخرة سنة سبع و سبع مائة للهجرة الحنفية

'These holy Epistles were written from a copy in which it was recorded that it was a careful copy copied from another, in the handwriting of the eminent father Anba Yuḥannā bishop of Samanūd, called El Samanūdy; and the copy from which the former was made was in the writing of Patriarch Anba Gabryāl (III, 1268-1271), and at the time of the writing of it he was a priest, and he said that he (G.) exerted himself in writing and correcting it in Coptic and Arabic according to what human skill attained. And he who provided for the work was the Christian Archon al Nashū Abu Shākir ben al Sany the monk, ben al Muhaddhib, and he was the son of Al Rīshah; and he recorded that the completion of it was on the tenth of Kīhak in the year 966 of the

A₁ Martyrs, corresponding to the beginning of the month Ramaḍān of the year 649 of the Hijrah. And the humble servant and sinner Yūnas, who is named Abu Sa'īd ben Sa'īd al Dār ibn Abu al Faḍl the Christian, copied this (copy) for himself with writing of his hand, and it was finished on the day of the sabbath the 9th of Bābah in the year 1024, corresponding to the seventh of the second Rabī'a of the year 707 of the Ḥanaḥiyyan Hijrah.'

p. 131^a (restored) 'Written in the 8th centy of the Coptic Church.'

p. 131^b list of Cath. epp. and Acts.

p. 132^a vacant except quire beginning, ^b vacant but painted yellow with black-lined border, probably representing a picture in the exemplar, cf. II₂^{ev}.

Ep. James begins as ep. Rom. with headpiece and red Arabic 'The Katalikūn,' one large ornamented and two lines of ordinary red letters. Subscr. as before red. Thus also for ep. 1 Peter p. 139^a, ep. 2 Peter p. 145^b, ep. 1 John p. 149^b, ep. 2 John p. 155^b, ep. 3 John p. 156^b, ep. Jude p. 157^a. Thus also the rest, with three lines of ordinary red letters. After subscription of Jude καθεολικη επιστολη ε εν ιρηνη τω κω cτix λ̄, ρ̄ κε λ̄ ρ̄ in large black archaic without translation.

After fol. 158 is an unnumbered fol. restored with w.m. P P. Then p. 159^a Acts begins as epp. Rom. and James with الابركسس 'The Praxis' on label of yellow headpiece, one line of large ornamented red and three of ordinary red letters.

p. 217^b after tall black archaic letters of subscr. is black Arabic statement:

'Was completed the book of the Catholic epistles and the Acts; and A₁ it is recorded in the copied copy, that (the said) copy was copied from a correct copy in the handwriting of Jūrjah ben Saksīk the celebrated copyist, and that the writer of his copy was the miserable among the monks Gabryāl; and he said that he (G.) exerted himself in correcting it in Arabic and Coptic with a very thorough revision; and he recorded that the provider for the work was the Shaykh al Nashū the before-mentioned; and the end of the work was on the tenth of Kihak in the year 966 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. And the end of copying this copy was on the blessed fifth day, twenty-eighth of Bābah in the year 1024 of the Martyrs, corresponding to the twenty-sixth of Rabī'a II of the year 707 of the Ḥanafiyan Hijrah. It belongs to what he copied for himself with writing of his hand, the humble servant and sinner Abu Sā'id ben Sa'id al Dār ben Abu al Faḍl the Christian; and he prays and makes many prostrations at the feet of him who reads in it, that he would correct its defect and think of him for mercy and pardon before the Lord at his coming to judge the world; and adoration and glory be to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit for ever and ever. Amen.

It was collated in Arabic and Coptic.'

p. 218^a '217 folios Mar. 1870 G G ex^d F W.' One recent binding fol. ends the volume.

2. A₂ Paul (Philemon, Heb.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab. [London Brit. A₂ Mus.], Curzon¹ 125 (Greg. 7), perfect, some pages overlaid with paper. A. D. 1794, A. Mart. 1510, paper very fine, foll. 276 (+ 2), coll. 2, ll. 31, 32, 22.4 × 16 cm., text 15.3 × 11.3 cm., writing in close lines, irregular, but the text carefully copied from Gabriel's copy A. D. 1250, A. Mart. 966; punctuation, small red ⚡ and ⚡-; l. c. more than three lines, red and white; s. c. red for ch. and elsewhere black reddened; ch. great marked by one line of red letters, but not numbered; ch. small red uncials: foliated on verso with uncials not signed, except quire ending &c. ornt. A₂ Christ and S. Mary, the Conversion of Saul and S. Paul? writing, suggestive of pictures in Gabriel's copy and leaving cruciform space. Fol. 164 has drawing of four figures of the writers of the Catholic epistles beneath an arch from which hang seven lamps; a smaller side arch has another lamp with one more above it. Rough arabesque ornament also occurs with grotesque figures of dragons, birds, and other animals. Epp. Paul, Cath., and Acts have elaborate first pages of coarse colour; the usual headpiece is a narrow band of interlacing work. Ep. Heb. has three arches. In the three-arched headpiece at beginning of ep. Rom. is a yellow Arabic inscription on white label, 'The book of the epistles of the words (من قول) of our master (معلمنا) Būlus.' Under the arches is the inscription $\pi\rho\sigma\ \rho\omega\mu\alpha\iota\omicron\varsigma\ \bar{\alpha}$, to which are added the words which appear in other MSS. as subscription, though without notice of the stichoi and chapters which will be found at the beginning of the other epistles in A₂.

Bound in native red leather the cover inside has R. Curzon Parham; on the first original fol. is written, 'The Acts of the Apostles and the Epistles in Coptic and Arabic.' On the fourth is the cross &c., which forms frontispiece to ep. Rom.

p. 4^a ep. Rom. begins with one large ornamented line of blue letters reddened, one tall line of red, one tall yellow, one tall black reddened, and one line of red ordinary letters. For the rest of Paul, Peter, John, and Jude one large blue line and two or three ordinary lines of red letters mark the beginning of the epistles. Ep. James being the first Catholic ep. begins with one very large yellow line, one large blue reddened, one large yellow, one large red blackened, and one ordinary line of red letters.

pp. 39^b, 40^a have red and blue lines enclosing the columns (Rom. xvi. 7-21).

p. 40^b ep. Rom. ends $\pi\rho\sigma\ \rho\omega\mu\alpha\iota\omicron\varsigma$, and Arabic 'Finished is (the) epistle of Rome in peace, and follows it (يتلو) the first epistle of Corinth.'

p. 67^b ep. 1 Cor. ends with Arabic 'Completed is the first epistle of Corinth in peace of the Lord. Amen.' Then in rhyming verse:

يا قاري هذا الخط لم تعاشر احدا قط.

درت البلاد وعاشت اهلها لم وجدت في الناس خيرا قط

'O reader of this line, do not associate with anyone at all. I went about the country, and I associated with the people of it: and I found among men not any good at all.' باحلب الروحاني اذكروا حقارة. وعدم طهارة الناس.

p. 83^b ep. 2 Cor. ends ‘Finished and completed is the second epistle of Corinth, being the third of the epistles, in peace of the Lord. Amen. And follows it the epistle of Galatia.’

p. 92^a ep. Gal. ends ‘Completed is the epistle of Galatia, being the fourth. And follows it the epistle of Ephesus.’

p. 101^a ep. Eph. ends ‘Completed is the epistle of Ephesus in peace &c.’

p. 108^b ep. Philip. ends ‘Completed is the epistle of Filibās, being the sixth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Kūlāšāyṣ.’

p. 115^a ep. Col. ends ‘Completed is the epistle of Kūlāšāyṣ, being the seventh of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the first epistle of Sālūnīky.’ To the usual form of inscription of epp. 1 and 2 Thess. is added $\varsigma\tau\pi\theta\epsilon\omega$.

p. 121^a ep. 1 Thess. ends ‘Completed is the first epistle of Tasālūnīky, being the eighth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the second epistle of Tasālūnīky.’

p. 124^b ep. 2 Thess. ends ‘Finished and completed is the second epistle of Tasālūnīky, being the ninth, in peace &c. And follows (it) the first epistle of Tīmūtāūs.’

p. 131^a ep. 1 Tim. begins with $\varsigma\tau\pi\theta\epsilon\omega\ \iota\varsigma\chi\tau\omicron\pi\omicron\varsigma\ \omicron\bar{\alpha}\tau\iota\omicron\varsigma$ and usual inscription &c., and ends ‘Finished is the first epistle of Tīmūtāūs, being the tenth of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the second (lit. 2) epistle of Tīmūtāūs.’

p. 136^b ep. 2 Tim. ends ‘Completed is the second epistle of Tīmūtāūs, being the eleventh of the epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Tītūs.’

p. 140^a ep. Titus ends ‘Completed is the epistle of Tītūs, in peace &c. And follows it the epistle of Filīmūn.’

A₂ p. 142^b ep. Philem. ends 'Finished and completed is the epistle of Filimūn, being the thirteenth, in peace &c. The epistle of the 'Abrāyīn 14.'

Ep. Hebrews has triple round-arched headpiece with $\text{C}^{\Theta}\text{N}\Theta$ and $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{C}$ and the usual form of inscription &c.; p. 163^a ends with same general subscription as A₁ except that $\text{CTI}^{\text{X}}\text{OC}$ is written in full, also the following:

And it was from a copy in the writing of the presbyter Gabryāl the monk, written out in the year nine hundred and sixty-six of the Martyrs, which corresponds to the beginning of Ramaḍān in the year 647 of the Hijrah. In peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 172^b ep. James ends 'Completed is the epistle of Ya'kūb, the first of the Catholic epistles, in peace &c. And follows it the first epistle of Buṭrus, the second of the Catholic.'

p. 173^a ep. 1 Peter has black $\text{C}^{\text{N}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{OC}$ ΔVIOC beside the inscriptions.

p. 180^a ep. 1 Peter ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Buṭrus.'

p. 186^a ep. 2 Peter ends 'Completed is the second epistle of Buṭrus, being the third of the Catholic, in peace of the Lord. Amen.'

p. 193^b ep. 1 John ends 'Completed is the first epistle of Yūhannā, the fourth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

Ep. 2 John has later black $\text{C}^{\text{N}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{OC}$, and ends without subscription.

p. 195^a ep. 3 John has black $\text{C}^{\text{N}}\text{N}\Theta\text{EW}$ $\text{IC}^{\text{X}}\text{C}^{\text{P}}\text{OC}$ $\bar{\text{O}}\Delta\text{VIOC}$ with inscription in usual form, and ends 'Completed is the third epistle of Yūhannā, being the sixth of the Catholic, in peace &c.'

p. 198^a ep. Jude ends 'Completed was the epistle of Yahūdā, the A₂ brother of the Lord, it is the seventh, in peace &c.'

Epp. Cath. end with the same general subscription in tall blue reddened letters as A₁ except CTIXOC and ΚΑΦΑΛΕΟΝ written in full and ΔΥ by error for ΛΥ.

p. 271^a has broad border round vacant space, three more original foll. and one recent end the volume.

3. B two volumes, I Paul (Heb., Tim.), II Cath., Acts; Polyglot, Milan B Bibl. Ambrosiana, imperfect, XII–XIV centuries, paper, foll. 275 (I), 186 (II), coll. 5, Ethiopic, Syriac, Coptic, Arabic, Armenian (defective), ll. 31–44, 29.5 × 6 cm. Copt. col. The Coptic writing is of two hands, I of earlier, XII cent. form (B), ends in middle of 2 Cor. iv. 2, and begins again in middle of 2 Cor. ix. 7 and ends in middle of Gal. iii. 1; II of later, XIV cent. appearance (B^a), resembling H and agreeing also in text with H. B^a has points of brighter colour, Φ, Ϸ, ϸ reddened and quire endings &c. ⲓⲃ ⲓⲃ; punctuation, red ⲛ and more often ⲛ, ⲛ occurs, and also black colon which replaces the red point in some pages; l. c. marginal as usual; s. c. not marginal because of want of space; ch. great marked by large capital and red lines of varying number and arrangement, but not numbered till ⲓⲃ of 1 Cor. in B; B^a marks ch. great with two red lines, and numbers also the small; foliated on recto with uncials;

B the quinions are marked in Arabic and numbered: thus p. 9^b الكراس الثاني 'the second quire.' The text is peculiar, though B^a usually agreeing with D. Epp. 1 and 2 Cor. have rectangular headpiece of early form with the ordinary interlacing lines of red, black, and white. Ep. Gal. has no headpiece. The text begins at Rom. i. 20, on p. 20^a (orig. fol. $\bar{\text{E}}$), and continues to iii. 29, which verse is now on the first page of volume I (fol. $\bar{\text{IK}}$). p. 46^b the inscription of 1 Cor. begins above, and is continued down within the first large capital Π . p. 68^b an ornament of early form below the Syriac column. p. 69^b Arabic reference to feast of S. Antonius. p. 71^b IA the number of chapter written twice within capital H . Reference in Arabic to the water, of plunging, i. e. the Epiphany. p. 94^a capital A formed by black bird. p. 99^b ep. 2 Cor. headpiece (see above). p. 126^b the former writing begins again, rather larger with no red points, only occasional black colon and no signature for quire beginning. p. 142^a ep. Gal. begins with one large and one smaller line of archaic letters; verso has Arabic signature of name of epistle. p. 143^b v. 11 Ar. reference to the feast of Stephen. p. 149^a v. 16 Ar. reference to adoration of the Cross. p. 150^a the later hand begins without red colour, which is resumed on 150^b with signature $\text{V}\lambda\lambda\text{T}$; and the references to O. T. are written in red uncials and black Arabic. At the foot of Syriac column: الله يرحم لمن قرا في هذه النسخة المباركة ويدعى للمتهم والناسخ للضعيف ويوحنا السرياني من God shall have mercy on him who reads in this blessed copy: and he shall call (upon God) for him who provided (for the work) and for the copyist the feeble Yūhannā the Syrian from the city Amida the protected, and may he strengthen him for ever. Amen.' p. 151^b v. 15 Ar. reference to the feast of the Nativity. p. 160^a after the subscription is Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of the great doctor Paul the apostle to the people of Galatia, being the fourth in number, and being the first to them (وهي الاولى لهم): and it was written from Rome, and sent with Titus his disciple. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy on us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the souls (نفوس) of thy servants the transcriber (ناقل) and his brother Ḥadīd, through the prayers of those who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and on us mercy. Amen.' Then below a red line of division, 'And the number of its great chapters six, and small thirty-one': اهتم بها القس صليب المهتم بدير السريان المعروف بستنا السيدة: 'Provided for it the presbyter Ṣalīb the provider at Dayr al Siryān, known as our Lady the Virgin. May the Lord reward him with her intercessions. Amen.' Below the Syriac column is a better written Arabic subscr. stating the end of the epistle by help of God.

p. 160^b ep. Eph. begins with $\text{C}\overset{\Theta}{\text{P}}\text{N}$ before the inscription, one large B and one smaller line of archaic and two of red ordinary letters. p. 176^a the Coptic subscription is written in a thinner hand below the Coptic and Arabic columns, then in Arabic 'Finished was the epistle of Paul the apostle to the people of Ephesus. It was written from Rome, and sent with the brother Tishkūs. May the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon us through their prayers. Amen. O Lord, open the soul of thy little servant the transcriber of these letters and his brother Ḥadid through the intercessions of them who have pleased Thee in their good works. Amen. And to God be glory for ever, and upon us mercy. Amen.' Then in red, 'And the number of its great chapters seven, and small thirty.' Then the same statement about the provider the honoured presbyter Ṣalīb. The Virgin is called 'Mother of God,' and 'in his kingdom' is added to 'intercessions.' p. 176^b ep. Philip. begins with $\text{C}\overset{\Theta}{\text{P}}\text{N}$ before the Coptic inscription and the same kind of arrangement of lines. The Armenian column disappears. p. 184^b has quire heading $\overline{\text{I}\overline{\text{P}}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}\overline{\text{H}}}$ (sic) $\overline{\text{I}\overline{\Theta}}$. p. 188^a after $\text{KE}\Phi\Delta\lambda \overline{\text{C}}$ the subscr. continues $\overline{\text{ΠOC}} \overline{\text{ΠAI}} \overline{\text{NHI}} \overline{\text{ΠEK-}}$

The text has one black line of large letters. p. 208^a the Ar. subscr. omits mention of no. of stichoi and chapters. p. 208^b ep. 2 Thess. begins with broader headpiece and $\text{C}\overline{\text{P}}\text{N}\overline{\Theta\text{EW}}$. p. 214^a ep. Heb. begins with smaller headpiece. The inscription is not given in Arabic. The text has one line of large black reddened lines. p. 214^b $\overline{\text{I}\overline{\text{P}}}$ (orn.) $\overline{\text{X}\overline{\text{P}}}$

In volume II the four languages continue and the Coptic of the later hand. p. 1^a ep. James begins with headpiece and $\text{C}\overline{\text{P}}\text{N}\overline{\Theta\text{EW}}$, one line of large black reddened letters. pp. 9^b, 10^a quire ending and beginning as before, continuing the numbers $\overline{\text{K}\overline{\Theta}}$ &c. p. 13^b ep. 1 Peter begins with smaller headpiece and $\text{C}\overline{\text{P}}\text{N}\overline{\Theta\text{EW}}$ &c. p. 27^a ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except two large lines. p. 35^b ep. 1 John begins as ep. 1 Peter.

B p. 48^a ends with red Ar. subscr., 'Finished was the first epistle of John.' p. 48^b ep. 2 John larger headpiece Ⲭⲏⲛⲟⲩⲉⲱ &c. p. 50^a red Ar. subscr. as above, below Coptic. p. 50^b ep. 3 John the same with smaller headpiece. p. 51^b subscr. as for 2. Ep. Jude begins as 3 John except no peculiar lines of letters. p. 55^a in red Arabic below Coptic, 'Finished was the epistle of Jude in peace of the Lord, and with its completion also the seven Catholic epistles in peace of the Lord. Amen. And following are the narrations (قصة) of our fathers the apostles.' p. 55^b the Acts begins with large square headpiece containing a label with Ⲭⲏⲛⲟⲩⲉⲱ, two lines of large black letters. Neither Coptic, Arabic, nor Syriac have any subscription. The Ethiopic only ተፋጸመ; በዘዩ ሐዋርያ ወግብረመ 'Was finished here the apostle and their acts.'

C 4. C Paul (Philem., Heb.), Cath., Acts; Copt., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḡ, perfect, XIV century, paper, col. 1, ll. 25, 36.8 × 27 cm., text 26 × 18.5 cm., writing resembles Δ₂^{evv}, but the arabesque ornament at some of the headings and chapters is rather coarse; l. c. variously coloured and also red only; s. c. red; ch. great marked by two red lines and red uncials; ch. small with black uncials; quire endings &c. ⲓⲮ ⲭⲮ, ⲮⲬ ⲙⲬ, or ⲕⲉ ⲟⲙⲬ; quotations pointed. The first page of ep. Rom. has an oblong headpiece with circular forms on gold ground and a label with inscription; the text having one line of tall yellow letters, four of thick black archaic, three red, three black, and two red of similar archaic letters with gold floret for points. This MS. was collated only for Romans and 1 Corinthians to supply the missing portion of Γ. The text agrees closely with H J.

Γ 5. Γ Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., Upper Egypt Dayr al Muḥarraḡ (Greg. 26), imperfect, XII century, paper, foll. 417 (+ 15), coll. 2, ll. 24, 35.7 × 26.3 cm., text 25.6 × 18.2 cm.; punctuation, red ⲛ ⲛ ⲛ —, rare colon and black hyphen; quotations pointed; foliated on verso in uncials, signature on recto in red; l. c. in epp. variously coloured, in Acts red only, twice with arabesque, bird capital rare; s. c. usually black reddened, rarely red; ch. great marked by rather large uncials, red with dashes and flourishes; ch. small with small black uncials between black lines and sinuous vertical line as in D₁^{evv}; ch. Gr. also marked by red uncials and رومی 'Greek' in a series continuing throughout epistles to end of Hebrews; quinions as usual, with ending &c. ⲓⲮ ⲭⲮ, ⲮⲬ ⲙⲬ, ⲡⲁⲓ ⲡⲁⲛ, ⲡⲁⲓ ⲡⲡⲓ, ⲓⲟⲬ ⲙⲮ, ⲓⲮ ⲭⲮ; first pages of brilliant ornament resembling Γ^{evv}, the beautiful writing of which is also very similar, but see below; freely glossed in red with many explanations and occasional allusions to readings; in Acts a few explanations and occasional reference شرح 'another commentary'; foll. not much cut, patched throughout Γ in lower margin, and much of the Acts has injury in upper. Binding recent with four leather clasps. Orthogr. Φ†, scarcely found in Γ^{evv}, is common, but the forms of † and ‡ are not early, the other form of ‡ occurs as final. The ancient writing begins 1 Cor. xvi. 12 ΕΥΕΙ ΔΕ. The text agrees with G M. p. 92^b ep. 2 Cor. begins with headpiece, two lines of large black reddened letters, Greek (رومی) n° KΔ, and the number of the epistle (viz. Γ), which is always placed below the number of the small chapters. Ch. ii. 12 Gr. n° KΒ, iv. 16 KΥ, vii. 1 KΔ, ix. 1 KΕ, xii. 1 KΖ. p. 121^a ep. Gal. begins as before except two very large letters, the rest of the line being of large black reddened, Gr. n° KH, ii. 14 KΘ, (Λ missed,) v. 2 ΛΔ. p. 135^a ep. Eph. begins as before except one line of large and one of smaller black reddened letters, Gr. n° ΛΒ, iii. 1 ΛΥ, iv. 29 ΛΔ. p. 139^b ep. Philip. begins as before except one tall ornamented line and one of large black reddened letters, Gr. n° ΛΕ, ii. 1 ΛΣ, iii. 13 ΛΖ; the omission in iv. 9 is given in margin beneath the words سهيت اغفاني 'I was negligent, forgive me,' cf. Γ^{evv}, p. 248^b. p. 169^a ep. Col. begins with round-arched headpiece and one tall ornamented line and two lines of shorter black reddened letters, Gr. n° ΛΗ, iii. 1 ΛΘ; at iv. 13 the glosser has translated ιερσπολις المذينة يارا 'the city Yārā.' p. 170^b ep. 1 Thess. begins with rectangular headpiece as before and two lines of large black reddened letters, Gr. n° ΞΞ (ΞΞ neglected). p. 180^a ep. 2 Thess. begins with very slight headpiece and one line of tall ornamented black reddened letters, Gr. n° (ΞΞ)Β. p. 186^a ep. Heb. begins with rectangular headpiece, three very large coloured letters and one line of tall ornamented black reddened letters, Gr. n° ΞΞΥ, iii. 14 ΞΞΥ (again), vi. 9 ΞΞΔ, viii. 1 ΞΞΕ, ix. 24 ΞΞΣ, xi. 3 ΞΞΖ, xii. 3 ΞΞΗ. p. 220^a ep. 1 Tim. begins with neatly bordered label, one line of tall ornamented black reddened letters, Gr. n° absent; at iii. 16 the tr. of ΦΗ is ذاك, v. 22 ΠΔ. p. 232^a ep. 2 Tim. begins as ep. 1, Gr. n° i. 14 ΠΒ, iv. 1 ΠΥ. p. 240^b ep. Titus begins with slender headpiece and one line as above; Gr. n^{os} cease. p. 245^b ep. Philem. begins with graceful headpiece including medallion with the name ΦΙΛΙ- ΜΟΝ written vertically and horizontally, below which is CΠΘΕΩ and inscription, one line as above. Γ ' Bless me, forgive me, remember me, namely the feeble one, and sinner, for the Lord Jesus to dispose my life according to his holy and blessed wish, and grant me (the) forgiveness of my sins. Amēn.' p. 248^a ep. James begins with brilliant first page consisting of broad borders on upper and outer sides which latter has a further border of the usual arabesque, the whole resembling the ornament of Γ of the Gospels. The upper border contains a label with ϸϩⲛⲑⲉⲱ and the inscription. The text has one line of four ornamented letters, one of tall black reddened, three of shorter letters, three of ordinary red letters, and the remaining four ordinary black. p. 260^a ep. 1 Peter begins without headpiece, with one line of tall ornamented black reddened, three lines of ordinary red letters. p. 272^b ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except only two red lines. p. 281^a ep. 1 John begins as ep. 2 Peter, signature ⲓⲱ ⲁ. p. 293^a ep. 2 John begins as ep. 1. p. 294^b ep. 3 John begins as ep. 2. p. 296^a ep. Jude begins as ep. 3. p. 299^b below the subscription comes subscr. to all the Catholic epp. in very fine large black letters occasionally reddened, tr. in red. fol. 300 is vacant. p. 301^a Acts begins with ornament as for quire beginning, then rectangular headpiece with label containing ϸϩⲛⲑⲉⲱ, and arabesque extending round outer and lower border; the inscription forms two lines of ordinary red letters, then one large word brilliantly adorned, two lines of tall ornamented black reddened, two of ordinary red, and three of ordinary black letters. Signature is ⲡⲣⲁ-ⲉⲱⲛ. No date of any kind exists in the book. The restored leaves present two different forms of writing. There is some reason for supposing that the ordinary corrector (and glosser) was the original scribe. Lacunae, Rom. i. 1—1 Cor. xvi. 12. Collated in the monastery by the editor, 1893.

 black, and one of ordinary red letters. p. 125^a ep. ends with 'Was completed the epistle of Ephesus, and it was written in Rome, and sent by Achaicus, and there are (هي) three hundred and four (stichoi) and six chapters, with help of God most high.' p. 125^b ep. Philip. begins as before and with one line of large black and two of ordinary red letters.
 p. 133^b ep. ends with 'Finished and completed was the epistle of Filibāis with help from God most high. And it was written in the city of Rome, and sent by Abūfrātītas. And thanks to God for ever.' p. 134^a ep. Col. begins as ep. Philip. p. 142^a ep. ends 'Was completed the epistle of Kūlāsāis, and it was written in Ephesus, and sent with Achaicus and Onesimus and Marcus, with help from God most high. Remember the miserable sinner ⲧⲁ'amah named a priest with pardon of his sins; and he who says (as ep. Gal.). And thanks &c.' p. 142^b ep. 1 Thess.
 begins as ep. Philip. p. 150^a ep. ends with 'Finished and completed was the epistle of Thessalonica the first. It was written in Athens, and sent with Silvanus and Timotheus, with help from God most high.
 Remember the miserable sinner called ⲧⲁ'amah in the name a priest, minister of the church of our Lady, the Lady Miryam the Virgin. God shall remember you in his heavenly kingdom and he who says (as ep. Col.).
 And glory and thanks to God for ever and ever. Amen.' Ep. 2 Thess.
 begins as ep. 1 Thess. p. 154^a ep. ends with 'Finished and completed was the epistle to Thess. the second, and it was written in Athens, and sent by Silvanus and Timotheus, with help from God most high and the beauty

E₂ of his will. And thanks to God for ever.' p. 154^b ep. Heb. begins as before. p. 182^a ep. ends with 'Completed was the epistle of the Hebrews with help from God most high. It was written from Rome, and sent with Timotheus. And remember the miserable sinner Ṭa'amah in the name a priest. Christ shall remember you in his kingdom. Amen.' p. 182^b ep. 1 Tim. begins as before. p. 191^b ep. ends with 'Finished and completed was the first epistle to Timotheus, with help from God most high. And it was written in Laodicea. Remember the miserable sinner Ṭa'amah in the name a priest, minister of the church of our Lady, in the Ḥārah Zūlah, with pardon &c.' (as ep. Gal.). p. 192^b ep. 2 Tim. begins as before. p. 199^b ep. ends with 'Finished and completed was the epistle to Timotheus the second, with help &c. And it was written in the grand city of (ⲁ) Laodicea. Remember &c.' (as ep. 1 Tim. except 'Miryam' and 'reward thirtyfold &c.'). p. 200^a ep. Titus begins nearly as before. p. 203^a ep. ends 'Finished and completed was the epistle which was written from Nīkā the city (Nicopolis) to Titus, and it was sent with Arṭamā his disciple, in peace from the Lord and his help for ever. Amen.' p. 204^a ep. Philem. begins as before. p. 206^a ep. ends with 'Completed was the book of the fourteen epistles which are of the lord Paulus the apostle, with help from God most high. And the end of that was in the day of the blessed sabbath the twelfth of the month Bashuns the blessed, (in the) year (one) thousand three hundred two and fifty, Coptic of the pure Martyrs, their blessing (be) with us. Amen. And the copyist miserable, vile (ذليل), (and) culpable (الذميم), the taker of the talent (وزنة) of his lord and the burier of it in the earth, Ṭa'amah in the name a priest, bends (يحنو) his sinful head (هامة) under the soles of the feet of every one who studies this holy book, (praying him) to call on behalf of the miserable one for pardon &c.' (as ep. 2 Cor. omitting 'all'). p. 206^b has the library stamp.

Acts, other headpieces of moderate size, the headpiece of epistle to the Hebrews resembles that of ep. Eph. in K. Text is in close agreement with K. Lacunae, 2 Cor. xi. 3—Gal. iv. 14, Acts x. 30–39, xiii. 5–15. Liturgical notes occur at beginning and end of lections. Cod. 331¹ Copt. is written on the board, with ‘Epistolae Paule et Acta Apostolorum Coptice.’ Then comes a recent fol. with watermark E G, next two earlier foll. not original, bearing ‘Volume de 347 Feuilletts Manquent les Nos 257 à 265 omis dans le pagination 24 Mai 1889.’ p. 1^a has ‘Trois cent quarante quatre’ in the same writing as E₁, p. 1^a, therefore the MS. may have belonged to Gilbert Gaulmyn de Moulins before 1667. p. 1^b the frequent large cross on ground of interlacing work, red, green, yellow, black, and white, with four Greek crosses between the arms. p. 2^a first page of ep. Romans, deep band of interlacing work forming black crosses, one-third carried down to the foot of page, the other two ending in two cusped arches with $\text{C}^{\text{C}}\text{N}^{\text{C}}\text{OEW}$ and inscription; then l.c. and alternate lines of tall black thick archaic letters. p. 38^b ep. 1 Cor. begins with usual narrow headpiece, under which $\text{C}^{\text{C}}\text{N}^{\text{C}}\text{OEW} \Phi \text{P} \Delta \text{N} \Xi \Phi \text{†}$ ‘the name of God’; one line tall black reddened, and one of archaic letters. p. 73^a ep. 2 Cor. begins with same headpiece and words, but arabesque on outer margin; lines of letters nearly as before. foll. 90–102 restored, glossy white paper with good writing. p. 95^b ep. Gal. begins, headpiece &c. imitated from the original. p. 107^b ep. Eph. begins, headpiece, without marginal arabesque; one line of tall black, two of archaic letters black reddened, the second line rather larger. p. 119^b ep. ends, and below inscription:

 ‘Studied in these epistles the slave, the poor sinner, the unhappy one, drowned in the sea of sins and crimes, the full of villanies and defects, the destitute of virtues, the clothed with garments of vices. So he.’ The words end abruptly, leaving the page vacant. p. 120^a ep. Philip. begins as ep. 2 Cor., one line of tall black, one of archaic black reddened letters. p. 128^b ep. Col. begins as before, without arabesque; one line of tall black and two of large archaic. p. 137^a ep. 1 Thess. begins as before, with short arabesque, one line of tall black and one of archaic letters. p. 145^a ep. 2 Thess. begins with headpiece and bird and two flowers, one

F line of tall black and two archaic. p. 149^b ep. Heb. begins with headpiece resembling K, ep. Eph., i.e. enclosing floret and with bird and flowers, one line of tall black, one of archaic black reddened; quotations pointed. p. 177^b ep. 1 Tim. begins with usual headpiece &c., one line of tall black and two archaic. p. 187^b ep. 2 Tim. and p. 194^b ep. Titus begin as ep. 1 Tim. p. 199^a ep. Philem. begins with usual headpiece, marginal arabesque and lines as above. p. 200^b after the subscr. to all the Pauline epp. are some words of disguised Arabic: اغفرى يارب ساير دنوبي امين 'Pardon, O Lord, the rest of (or all) my crimes. Amen.' p. 201^a ep. James begins with headpiece of triple horseshoe arches containing circles for the same words as hitherto ⲥⲱⲛ ϣⲣⲁⲛ ⲙⲉϥⲓⲧ, below this Ⲡⲓⲕ-ⲧⲓⲣⲙⲟⲓⲕ ⲕⲉ ⲥ(MS. ⲉ)ⲧⲙⲡⲗⲑⲓⲕ; this work closely resembles the beginning of John in O₁^{vv}, outer marginal arabesque, then two lines of tall black reddened, two of archaic letters. p. 211^a ep. 1 Peter begins with usual headpiece &c., one line of tall black letters. p. 222^a ep. 2 Peter begins with usual headpiece &c. except Arabic بسم الله is added, line as above. Rough Arabic occurs at the end of ep. pp. 229^a, 239^a epp. 1 and 2 John begin as ep. 2 Peter. p. 240^b ep. 3 John begins as before except two lines of archaic black reddened after the first of tall black letters. p. 242^a ep. Jude begins as ep. 1 John. p. 244^b ep. ends, and there follows in disguised Arabic: اذكرني يارب وارحمي واغفر لي وسامحني بساير دنوبي ولا تواخذني بسوافعالي انا هو يعقوب ابن الاثم والخطية بصلاتك العذرى أم النور مريم وساير بسوافعالي انا هو يعقوب ابن الاثم والخطية بصلاتك الشهدا والقديسين امين امين امين 'Remember me, O Lord, and have mercy on me, and pardon me and forgive all my crimes, and punish me not for the wickedness of my deeds: I am Jacob the son of fault and sin, through the prayer of the Virgin the Mother of the Light, Miryam, and (of) all the holy martyrs. Amen. Amen. Amen. And his name among men Geōrgi (Girgis) the son of Petros (Butrus).' Γ̄ε̄ω̄ρ̄γ̄ῑ is written in the cryptogram of Σ̄ vol. i, p. xc, except that ϣ̄ (crypt.) = ρ; the disguised Arabic¹ is 'Girgis the son of Jacob,' or possibly 'Jacob the son of Girgis.' Three more lines of faded and partly erased Arabic occur, in which the word ملك is visible, implying a note of ownership. Four vacant foll., two with watermark an anchor. One more fol. thinner, and with watermark E C, ends the volume.

10. G Paul (Heb., Tim.), Cath., Acts; Copt. (interlined with Arabic), G Rome Vat. Copt. 14, formerly 5 (Greg. 18), imperfect, A. D. 1357 (A. Mart. 1074, Thoht), paper, foll. 350 (+6), col. 1, ll. 21, 28.7 × 20 cm., text 20.3 × 13.5 cm., writing fairly regular, with resemblance to Curzon 121 &c., but smaller; foliated irregularly on verso in red and black uncials, the original uncials leave off in ep. Heb., and later red continue; signature of name of epistle and number irregular; l. c. and s. c. scarcely distinguished; ch. great and small marked by red capitals and red uncials, ordinary verses have black c.; Greek chapters are enumerated in subscr.; no original quire endings &c., but a recent numeration of quires; no punctuation after p. 5, but spaces are left, and a hyphen occasionally occurs before and after -Δ̄.Π̄-; orn. consists of black and red headpieces and occasional lines of red letters; quotations occasionally noted; there are a few Arabic grammatical and other notes; orthography, ϩ̄ε̄ε̄ is usually written for ϩ̄ε̄. The text often agrees with Γ̄ M and P. Lacunae, Rom. ix. 15—1 Cor. iv. 14, Acts xxvi. 18 to end. Bound in red morocco, and bearing the arms of Clement XI on the cover, the volume begins with two vacant foll., after which on the first ancient page is Di Girolamo Vecchettis et pri, and a short Arabic note about the meaning of ʾAl in Rom. ii. 4. Portato da me Girolamo Vecchetti da Egitto anno 1591. Jo Baptista Raimundus bibliothecae Vaticanae dono dedit ex Testamento anno 1614.

14. K Paul (Philem., Heb.), Cath., Acts; Copt.-Arab., Rome Vat. Copt. K 12, formerly Raymund II (Greg. 16), imperfect, XIV century, paper, foll. 415 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 24, 36.2 × 24.5 cm., text 25.4 × 18.2 cm.; writing rather like Curzon 121 &c., but coarser; punctuation, red ⚡ and ⚡; foliated in uncials (not ancient) on verso and with recent ciphers on recto; in the numeration of pages below, these ciphers are neglected when irregular; signed recently with name of ep. on recto; l. c. more than three lines of text red or coloured as in XIV century, resembling B. M. Or. 1001 &c., but rougher; s. c. black reddened; ch. great marked by red uncials and two lines of red letters; ch. small by black uncials with number also of ep.; quotations sometimes pointed; quire endings &c. ⲓⲣ ⲭⲣ, ⲕⲉ ⲟⲉⲥ, ⲣⲥ ⲉⲥ; liturgical notices, orn. headpieces and arabesque at ch. great. Text often agrees with F, and less closely with D and L, sometimes also with G, and has also some peculiar readings. Orthography, ⲁⲣⲭⲏⲉⲣⲉⲣⲥ. Lacunae, Rom. i. 1—vii. 1, 1 Cor. xv. 6-7, 12, 24-33, Acts xx. 25—xxi. 31, xxiv. 4-15. Bound in red morocco, and bearing the arms of Pius VI on the cover, the volume begins with two binding foll.; next come sixteen restored foll., the first (not numbered) has 'Ep̄læ omnes B. Pauli Apl̄i, et canonichæ et Acta Ap̄lōꝝ sermone Aegyptiaco cum interpretatione arabica. N^o 12.' p. 1^a rough headpiece with ⲥⲣⲏ ⲉⲱ, then red Arabic 'We begin with the help of God (adoration to him), and the beauty of his direction, the writing of the epistles.' Ep. Rom. begins with one line of tall, one of thick black reddened, and one of red letters. p. 46^a ep. 1 Cor. begins with rather broad headpiece, one line of large gilt, and one black line, outer marginal arabesque. fol. 86 restored. p. 92^a ep. 2 Cor. begins nearly as ep. 1. p. 121^b ep. 2 Cor. ends with Arabic subscr. 'Was completed the second epistle to the people of Corinth, with the help of God.' p. 122^a ep. Gal. begins with same headpiece, but black inscr., lines and ornt. as before. p. 136^b ep. ends with Arabic 'Was completed the epistle to the people of Galatia, and he

K had written it from Rome, and sent it with Titus his disciple; and to God be the glory.' p. 137^a ep. Eph. begins with rather narrower headpiece, on the two outer vertical members of which are the words ΠΙΣΗΚΙ 'the poor' and CIΩΩN being probably the name of the scribe; CTN ΘΕΩ in black appears above the inscr.; two lines of large black lines, arabesque as before. p. 152^a ep. ends with Arabic 'Was completed the epistle to the people of Ephesus, and he had written it from Rome, and sent it with Titus; and to God be the glory for ever.' p. 152^b ep. Philip. begins with headpiece like those of A₁, one line of tall black, one of thick letters, arabesque on outer margin. p. 163^a ep. ends with only Coptic subscr. p. 163^b ep. Col. begins nearly as ep. Philip., and ends with only Coptic subscr. p. 174^b ep. 1 Thess. begins with unusual arabesque above headpiece nearly as ep. Eph. but without the name, one line of tall and two of thick black letters. p. 184^a ep. ends with only C. subscr. p. 184^b ep. 2 Thess. begins with headpiece and CTN ΘΕΩ as ep. Col., one line of tall black letters, and ends with only C. subscr. p. 189^b ep. 1 Tim. begins nearly as ep. 2 Thess., and ends similarly. p. 203^b ep. 2 Tim. begins with headpiece whose middle projecting enrichment takes the place of usual quire ornt., and above is written 'pistuum Timeteus secundum,' CTN ΘΕΩ and one line of tall black letters. p. 209^b ep. ends with only C. subscr., thus also to end of ep. 2 Peter. p. 210^a ep. Titus begins as ep. Col. except red CTN ΘΕΩ. p. 215^a ep. Philem. begins as ep. Titus except black C. &c. p. 217^b ep. Heb. begins as ep. Titus except no peculiar lines and more arabesque. p. 251^b ep. James begins with headpiece of different kind, rectangle with inscription on central label, and yellow border outside the interlacing work, one line of tall red, two of thick black archaic letters, outer marginal arabesque. p. 263^b ep. 1 Peter begins with headpiece of ep. Col., one line of tall black. p. 276^b ep. 2 Peter begins as ep. 1 except CTN ΘΕΩ and two lines of thick archaic letters. p. 285^a ep. 1 John begins as ep. 1 Peter except two lines as above and outer marginal arabesque; at end of verse 17 is red اخر فصل as well as the ordinary اخره. p. 296^b ep. ends with Arabic 'Was completed the first epistle of John, and to God be the glory for ever and ever.' p. 297^a ep. 2 John begins as ep. 1 except only one line, no subscr. p. 298^b ep. 3 John begins nearly as ep. 2, and ends 'Was completed the third epistle of John with help of God. Amen.' p. 300^b ep. Jude begins with headpiece &c. as ep. 3 John, and three lines of black archaic letters. p. 303^b ep. ends with 'Was completed the epistle of Jude, and it is the completion of the pure fathers the apostles, their prayer be with us. Amen.' p. 304^a Acts begins with headpiece of three round arches in perspective, black CTN ΘΕΩ under two, one line of tall black letters. foll. 385-388 restored. fol. 398 restored. p. 415^b ends K without subscription except Ar. 'And to God be the glory.' Two binding leaves finish the volume.

15. L (Lagarde b) Paul (Philem., Heb., Tim.); Copt.-Arab., Berlin L (Royal Orient. 116 [Greg. 14], 115 [Greg. 13]) and Copenhagen (Royal Orient. 19 [Greg. 21]), imperfect, XIV century, paper, foll. 88 + 105 + 31, coll. 2, ll. 32-33, 26.2 × 17.6 cm., text 21.5 × 13.4 cm.; 26.7 × 17.8 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; 26.8 × 18 cm., text 22.2 × 13.4 cm.; writing of early XIV century, the dots and lines over the letters appear to have been added by a later hand, and they are absent in the Copenhagen book; no original punctuation after Rom. i. 25, and there is none in the Copenhagen book; foliated in uncials on verso, signed with name of epistle on recto and ΠΡΟC on verso; l. c. very rare; ch. great marked by one line of red letters and red uncial; ch. small by black cursives with number also of epistle; quire endings &c. IC IX TC (IC, IV) ΘC, sometimes absent, IX = ΠXC? is peculiar to these books, usual central small orn., probably of the time of writing; scarcely any other ornament, only occasional headpiece; there are references to quotations and liturgical notices. It is not known how this MS. became separated into the present condition. Petraeus transcribed the epistles to Ephesians and Philippians from the Copenhagen book, and this transcript is contained in a small quarto volume at Berlin (Orient. 169), in which is a title-page written thus: ϥⲉⲛⲛⲓⲛⲓⲱⲧⲏ † ΕΠΙΣΤΟΛΑ S. PAULI AD EPHESIΩS AEGYPTIACE SEU COPTICE, In linguam Latinam ad verbum fideliter translata. Nuper Alcairo totius Aegypti metropoli unā cum aliis MSS. Copticis asportata; Materia Europaeis intacta, nunc primum tentata, et ob venerandam Pharaonicae Linguae antiquitatem Orbi literato exhibita, ac in lucem emissa M. THEODORO PETRAEO, Flensburgo-Holzato ⲧⲁⲣϭⲏ ⲛⲧⲥⲟⲫⲓⲁ † ⲉⲟⲧⲏ ⲛⲧⲉⲛⲟⲩ ⲧⲉ ("The beginning of wisdom is the fear of God") ÷ LVGDVNI BATAVORUM impensis Auctoris, et Typographejo Nisseliano CIO IOC LX. The Latin translation continues for only one page. This transcript was collated by the editor in 1899, and there can be no doubt about the exemplar, viz. the MS. at Copenhagen. This MS. at Copenhagen has been interleaved, probably by Petraeus, and amongst the watermarks are a heart and fleur de lys, these marks occur in Berlin 115 (foll. 17-21), and the heart alone in Berlin 116 (fol. 4, and at the end). Text often agrees with D and D^r. Lacunae, Rom. i. 16-18, 20-24, 1 Cor. iii. 15-iv. 6, Heb. ix. 22-x. 18, xii. 16 to end. [116] The third binding leaf has 'Epistolae Pauli ad Romanos et utraque ad Corinthios

L Arabice-Coptice.' p. 1 ep. Rom. begins with moderate-sized rectangular headpiece with neat interlacing work leaving crosses on each side of a broad label containing ⲥⲣⲡⲑⲉⲱ بسم الله. After the red inscr. literally translated, the text begins with l.c. black reddened = two lines, no other ornament. pp. 3, 4, these numbers are on an interleaf which has the heart watermark, and bears the Berlin Library stamp. pp. 5, 6 are fragmentary. p. 69^a after the C.A. subscr. there are six lines of Arabic erased. p. 70^a at the top are roughly written Coptic letters which appear to be a transcription of Arabic Ⲕ ⲉⲛⲓ ⲣⲉⲗⲛ ⲉⲑⲛ ⲣⲉⲗⲟⲩ وهي ثاني رساله من رسايله 'And it is the second epistle of his epistles.' Ep. 1 Cor. begins with headpiece of ordinary kind, red ⲥⲣⲡⲑⲉⲱ, and small capital without line of red letters, and ends without subscr. p. 132 the same kind of letters Ⲕ ⲉⲛⲗⲟⲩ ⲣⲉⲗⲛ 'And it is the third epistle,' black ⲥⲣⲡⲑⲉⲱ, small black capital. p. 176 (original foliation ٢٩) ep. ends with C.A. subscr., A. adding ascription of gratitude. Fifteen foll. of European paper are added for making notes by the owner, who writes a list of the epp. contained in MSS. 115, also 'in Holland. Leydae, 1^o Epist. ad Ephes. constat 6 cap. Item ii Epistol. ad Philippens. constat 4 cap.' The heart watermark occurs on this leaf, on others a wreath and cross, and name ADVRAND. [115] Three recent binding foll., watermark armorial shield as also in 116; the third has list of epp. Col., Thess., Philem., Heb., Tim., Titus. p. 1 ep. Col. begins with ⲥⲣⲡ and small capital black. p. 17 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. omits 'Achaicus,' and adds ascription. p. 18 ep. 1 Thess. begins as ep. Col. p. 33 ep. ends with C.A. subscr., A. adds Titus before Silvanus, and ascription. p. 34 ep. 2 Thess. begins as ep. Col. p. 42 is signed ⲡⲣⲟⲥ I, evidently meant for ep. 1 Tim., which should now follow, Philem. being numbered ⲓⲩ, 2 Tim. being ⲓⲔ. Ep. 2 Thess. ends with C. A. subscr., A. adds 'Timotheus' and ascription, obs. unusual سرمداً after ابداً. p. 43 ep. Philem. begins as ep. Col. p. 46 ep. ends with C. A. subscr.; then come Ps. i. 1-4 in Arabic and Ps. iv. 1. pp. 47, 89, 109, 123 epp. Heb., 1 Tim., 2 Tim., Titus begin as before. p. 88 end of ep. absent. p. 108 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. adds ascription; recent scrawls and circle. Ep. ends without subscr. p. 130 ep. ends with C. A. subscr., A. having 'Was completed the epistle of Timotheus,' (then over an erasure) 'and he had written it from Nīḡā the city, and he sent it with Arṡamā his disciple, who became bishop of Macedonia, and adoration to God for ever and ever eternally (سرمداً).' Then follow twenty-five foll. of notes of former owner. Two more later foll., one bearing the shield, end the volume. [19] Two vacant foll., 1^o has watermark ET, 2^o the heart.

M ΠΧC TC ΘC, black رسالة القديس بولس 'The epistle of Saint Paul,' then the red inscription, one line of large gilt ornamented, one of smaller red, one of green, and one of ordinary red letters. p. 25^b ep. ends with C. inscr. giving the Greek (ρωλλελλιο) chapters as G, and the witnesses of the Old Testament, after which ἀριθμεται ποτς πεκδωκ πιζγκη πιττακοπος πσνηλλ πωρηριη ιωα 'Remember, Lord, thy servant the poor, the deacon Sēm(on) the son of John.' p. 26^a ep. 1 Cor. begins with rectangular headpiece, having three disks and two cartouches containing قرنتية الاولى 'Corinth the first,' one line of large green and one of ordinary red letters. p. 48^b ep. ends with Ar. 'Was finished the epistle of Corinth the first, in peace from God. Amen,' after which comes C. subscr. p. 49^a ep. 2 Cor. begins without headpiece, with C. inscription and Ar. 'The second epistle of Corinth,' one line of rather large thick red, two lines of ordinary green, one of red letters. p. 64^b ep. Gal. begins with C. inscr. and Ar. 'The epistle of Galatia, and it is the fourth,' three lines ordinary size, ¹red, ²green, ³red letters. p. 72^b ep. ends with C. inscr., after which Ar. 'Was completed the epistle of Galatia in peace &c.,' then in smaller C. hand ἀριθμεται ποτς πεκδωκ πιζγκη πικερει πιττακοπος πσνηλλ πωρηριη ιωα ελενη εσεωπι (points separate the words sometimes incorrectly) 'Remember, Lord, thy servant the poor, the ashes, the deacon Sēm(on) the son of Iōa(nnēs). Amēn. It shall be.' p. 73 ep. Eph. begins with Ar. 'The epistle of Ephesus,' then C. inscr., one line of large ornamented green, one of ordinary red letters. p. 81^b ep. ends with C. subscr. and Ar. 'Was completed &c.' as before, and C. prayer as after ep. Rom. except ττακοπος and σιλλ. p. 82^a ep. Philip. begins with lines as last. p. 83^a ep. ends with C. inscr. and C. prayer as last except adding ποτς κτ ελλετοπ ποτκοτποτ (ποτχω πωοτ) εβωλ 'Lord, Lord, give rest (and) forgiveness to them,' then Ar. 'Was completed &c.' p. 83^b ep. Col. begins almost as ep. Philip. p. 94^b ep. ends with C. inscr. and Ar. 'Was completed the epistle of Colosse' (Kūlāsāis). pp. 95^a–101 epp. 1 and 2 Thess. begin as ep. Col. p. 104^a ep. 2 Thess. ends with C. subscr., after which ἀριθμεται ποτς πεκδωκ πιζγκη πικερει πσιλλ πωρηριη ιωαννης ψτχη ελλετοπ πωοτ ελενη 'Remember, Lord, thy servant the poor, the ashes Sim(on) the son of Iōannēs (of) soul give rest to them. Amen.' p. 104^b ep. Heb. begins with C. inscr. and Ar. 'The epistle of the Hebrews, and it is in the number the tenth,' one line of ordinary green and two of red letters. pp. 126^b, 134^a epp. 1 and 2 Tim. begin with C. inscr. and Ar. 'Timotheus the first (the second),' two lines of ordinary green and red letters.

'Finished and completed was the book of the holy Apocalypse of John the evangelist on the blessed sabbath day, eleventh of Barmutha, year 1376 Coptic, in peace of the Lord. Amen.' p. 33^b elaborate frontispiece of yellow, red, and green interlacing work, leaving prominent eight rows of five white crosses each. p. 34^a simple oblong headpiece with broad space containing the Coptic inscription and Ar. 'We begin with the help of God most high to write the Catholic epistles, first the epistle of James,' one line of tall black reddened and three lines of ordinary red letters. Ep. ends with 'Finished was the epistle of James the apostle, in peace from the Lord, and we pray him for help in all things, and to him be thanks for ever. Amen.' p. 38^b ep. 1 Peter begins with nearly square headpiece with label containing ⲥⲣⲏⲉⲱ &c. and C. A. inscription, the same lines except only two of red. Ep. ends with 'Was completed the first epistle of Peter,

THE number of its stichoi hundred five and twenty, and its chapters six. And we pray God for his assistance in its beginning and ending, and thanks &c.' p. 44^b ep. 2 Peter begins with headpiece as ep. James, but smaller space containing C. A. inscription; below is 'And it is the third of the holy pure Kāthūlikūn,' the same lines as ep. 1. Ep. ends with 'Was finished the second epistle of Peter, its stichoi three hundred (sic), and its chapters four.' p. 47^b ep. 1 John begins with broad oblong headpiece leaving crosses and space containing C. A. inscription with notice of number below, the same lines as before. p. 52^b ep. ends with 'Was completed &c., its stichoi 260, its chapter 76.' Ep. 2 John begins with nearly the same headpiece &c. except ⲥⲣⲏⲑⲉⲱ and tr. Ep. ends with 'Was completed &c., its stichoi fifty, and chapters one; and we pray God for his help in all things, and thanks &c.' p. 53^b ep. 3 John begins nearly as before, and ends 'Was finished &c., its stichoi fifty, and chapters one; and thanks &c.' p. 54^b ep. Apocalypse.

1. A Apoc.; Copt.-Arab. [London Brit. Mus.], Curzon (Parham) 128 A (Greg. 4), imperfect, A.D. 1320 (A. Mart. 1037 Kihak), paper, foll. 143 (+ 3), coll. 2, ll. 15, 16.5 × 12 cm., text 12 × 8 cm.; writing resembles Or. 1001 (E₂^{evv}) and the Cons. MS.; punctuation, red ⲥ and ⲥ; capitals of one size, black reddened; ch. marked by uncials; foliated on verso in uncials; liturgical words at the chapters; quire endings &c. ⲕⲉ ⲟⲩⲥ ⲡⲓ ⲕⲁ (occurs eleven times), ⲏⲛⲥ ⲡⲭⲥ, ⲭⲥ ⲟⲩⲥ, ⲏⲭ ⲭⲭ, usual ornament. Text glossed in Arabic throughout, with frequent reference to ص = the Sahidic version, to which the Arabic translation plainly inclines. The native red leather binding has Sahidic written on the back, and inside the mistake is repeated 'Apocalipsis Saidic MS. CVRZON, No. 16,' and lower down 128. After three vacant restored foll. p. 1^a has the remains of the original first ornamented page of text, two-arched headpiece with inner border, under the arches ⲥⲭⲡⲟⲩⲟ and tr., below comes the red Coptic inscr., one line of tall letters. foll. 2, 3 restored, foll. 4, 5 ancient, foll. 6, 7 restored. p. 14^a ii. 17-18 here occur the first antiphonal words (see at the end). p. 143^a after the last verse in black اهتم بهذا الكتاب المقدس الابو غالمسيس الشيخ الاجل الارخن الدين المسيحي شمس الرياسة ابن الشيخ تاج الرياسة المعروف بابن خروف المسيح الرب يفسح في اجله ويوفر نصيبه من شجرة الحياة المكتوبة في هذا الكتاب ويكفيه المناصب الشطانية والمحن الزمنية امين كتب بالقصية وكان الفراغ منه يوم الخميس الثامن من شهر كيهك سنة ١٢٨٥ q^h شهدا 'Provided for this holy book, the Apocalypse, the venerable shaykh the archon of the Christian religion, Shams al Riyāsah son of Tāj al Riyāsah, known as Ibn Khurūf. Christ the Lord shall increase his length of days, and enlarge his portion of the tree of life which is written in this book, and will be sufficient (aid) for him against the plots of Satan and temporal trials. Amen. It was written in the district of Kūs, and the finishing of it was (on) the fifth day, the eighth of the month Kihak, year 1037 of the Martyrs.' Then in red هذه النسخة المباركة بخط الاب القديس الاسقف انبا ابرام اسقف كرسى القوصية

The Lord shall enlighten him with his favour. He wrote it from a copy which was revised on the Sahidic and a number of Coptic copies which can be relied upon. And the father the bishop exerted himself and corrected what he could according to his excellent acquaintance with the language from a copy borrowed from the lord the righteous archon of the Christian religion, the Shaykh Al Makīn, son of the late Al 'Amīd. The Lord shall magnify his reward.' Two vacant foll. finish the volume; on the first is pencil note, '143 Folios P B ex^{ed}. 1898.'

B 2. B Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Petersburg Bibl. Cæsariensis Orient. 625 (Greg. 12), imperfect, probably not later than A. D. 1200, paper, foll. 92, coll. 2, ll. 17-18, 21.5 × 14.8 cm., text 16 × 9.5 cm.; the writing is regular, rather tall and compressed; punctuation, black colon, red :, ∙, ∙∙ sometimes placed after black colon; l. c. sometimes = three lines of text, red or black reddened, with arabesque attached; s. c. black reddened; chapters marked by larger c. and arabesque; no foliation; quire ending &c. IC ornt. ΧC ΠΔΙ ΠΗΙ, IC (17) ΧΥ ΔΥΘΡΟ, and IC ΧC alone also occur; ornt. arabesque trailing ornament attached to capitals, ornt. of quire endings &c. of early style; liturgical words are of later hand. Text has some peculiar readings, but usually supports A in the more important places. Lacunae, i. 1-8, 19-ii. 9, ii. 13-17, iv. 10-v. 3, vii. 6-11. The volume is bound in native leather, and covered with paper on which are red circles and 625 on the back. Inside on the cover is N. 246. Three restored foll. at beginning, on 1° 'Dans ce livre ci il trouve l'apocalypse de St Joan. en Copte et en arabe,' seal and Fourment 8. p. 5^a text begins i. 9. p. 9^a after subscr., without translation, ΠΟΤ ΠΔΙ ΕΠΙ-

3. C Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Rome Vat. 15 (Greg. 9), perfect, XIV century, C paper, foll. 60 (+4), coll. 2, ll. 24, 33 × 24.5 cm., text 25 × 18 cm.; writing of early XIV century, resembling Curzon 121 &c. (J₁^{evv}), nearly as bold as B.M. 3381 (Δ₁^{evv}); punctuation, red ⲥ and ⲥ̇, sometimes ⲥ̇; orn. exactly the same as Vat. 12; l.c. = three lines, red, yellow, and black; s.c. black reddened; chapters marked by l. c. and red uncials; foliated on recto in Syriac letters (inverted), of which the first is ܩܕܝܫ = 247 and the last ܩܕܝܫ = 304; quire endings &c. ܬܬ ܐܬܬ, ܬܬ ܬܬ, ܬܬ ܬܬ, with usual ornament, the first beginning is numbered ܬܬ and the last ܬܬ; they are also numbered in Syriac, but the Syriac and Coptic numbering of the quires seems in advance of the Syriac numbering of the foll.; orn. (see K); liturgical words; occasional glosses. Text is rather independent of the other MSS. Bound in red morocco with armorial bearings, the volume begins with two binding foll. and two restored with three crescents mark, unnumbered. p. 1^a has headpiece, not coloured, with ܬܬܬܬܬ and Coptic inser. Text begins with one line of tall black reddened letters. p. 59^b after the subscr. in large archaic letters there is ترتيب الشعانين 'the order of Palm Sunday,' and nineteen lines of Arabic, after which two binding foll. end the book.

4. D Apoc.; Copt.-Arab., Rome Vat. 16 (Greg. 10), perfect, XIV century (before 1345 A.D.), paper, foll. 109, coll. 2, ll. 20, 20.18 × 15.5 cm., text 14.3 × 9 cm.; writing like Curzon 121 &c. (J₁^{evv}), but smaller; punctuation, red ⲥ̇ with black hyphen or point often used; l.c. = three lines red or black reddened; s.c. black reddened; chapters marked by two lines of red letters and (usually enclosed) red uncials; foliated on verso in black uncials; quire ending &c. ܬܬ ܬܬ ܬܬ ܬܬ and usual ornament; orn. frontispiece and enrichment of first five pages; liturgical words. Text is rather independent, freely glossed with red Arabic, occasional black, probably by original scribe. Bound in red European leather, the cover has inside 'Vat XI nov 15.' First ancient page has impression of former ornament, the third is covered with beautiful arabesque, gilt, blue and red with blue border, six large interlacing segments of circles with four small circular forms at corners and two in the middle space, best XIV century style. p. 1^a beautiful headpiece with exterior circle of gilt, blue and black, containing 'The book of the holy Apocalypse,' below is gilt ܬܬܬܬܬ and tr. and blue Coptic inser., one line of large gilt, blue

D and red, two lines of large gilt, two of smaller gilt, three of ordinary blue letters with floret points. Obs. French Library stamp 'Bibliothèque Vaticane.' p. 98^a has in red Coptic πισμωϛ ετοωϛ εε-μοϛ θεπταρχη εεπιχωε 'The blessing which is read at the beginning of the book.' Then follow four and a half foll. of the σμωϛ, similar to, but not the same as in Z, combining invocation, exhortation, and prayer. p. 103^b red كل ذلك referring to end of the σμωϛ; then two verses, nearly the same as vol. i, p. cxlvi, vv. 5 and 6, ΔΙΣΘΗΤΥ ΘΕΠΤΑΧΙΧ ∗ ΠΙΣΘΔΙ ΕΓΕΡΕΕΘΕΡΕ ΠΗΙ ∗ ΧΕ ΕΙΕΧΔΥ ΠΟΥΕΘΟΟϛ ∗ ΟΥΟΖ ΠΤΔΨΕ ΠΗΙ ∗ ΙΙ ΦΗ ΕΤΨΟΠ ΘΕΠΤΑϣΛΗ ∗ ΕΕΠΕΡΕΡΠΩΔΨ ΠΤΕΚΨΕ ΠΡΑϢΤ ∗ ΧΕ ΠΗ ΕΤΨΟΠ ΘΕΠΤΑϣΛΗ ∗ ΣΕΠΔΟϞΩ-ΤΕΒ ΖΩΤ ∗ كتبته بيدي والخط. يشهد لي انه ساتركه يومًا وارحلي ياساكن الدار لا تنسى الرحيل اغدا فكل ساكن دار سوف يرتحلي 'I wrote it with my hand. Because they who live in the mansion will have to remove.' Then Arabic statement 'This blessed book, containing the book (سفر) of the holy Apocalypse, was transferred from the possession of its possessor mentioned in the last page to the possession of the shaykh, the chief Amīn al Mulk, son of the shaykh, the chief the most honourable, 'Bu 'l Karam; may God make long the length of his life, and make the kings acknowledge his authority. And the slave (i. e. the present owner) receive the proper price, and this writing is witness against me. It was finished by the help of God most high and his support (تأييده), the book (سفر) of the holy Apocalypse, which is the vision (رويا) of Saint John the evangelist. May God have mercy upon us by his blessings. Amen. On Friday the fifteenth of the month Barmahāt, year one and sixty and a thousand of the pure Martyrs. And it was the sixth week of the holy Fast. May God renew (اعاد) his blessing. The book was written for himself and those who come after him, if God most high will, by the servant, miserable, poor, weak, dust, fruitless, containing all the vices, destitute of all virtues, the greatest sinner among men, Yūhannā ben Abu 'l Munā ben Al Kīddīs. And he asks the love of the masters the readers in it, and the lookers upon it to turn their face (يتجاوزوا) from its error, and correct its imperfection by their perfection; for I indeed dared and undertook what I know not, and I essayed what I am not acquainted with, and the Lord God shall reward them for what they shall speak forth (يتفوهون) of correction, in Jerusalem of the heavens and the fulness of eternal everlasting good things, by the prayers of the martyrs and the saints. Amen. And adoration to God D for ever and ever.' p. 103^b has French and Papal stamp; three more vacant leaves end the volume.

He in his mercy shall work mercy with the provider, the possessor (القاني) and the reader and the poor sinner copyist of it (ناقل), and to Him the glory for evermore, and upon us his mercy.' foll. 100-106 contain Coptic writing headed πικροτ ετονωυ μεοc (sic) δαχεν† απονα-λτεψic εθοταδ. 'The blessing which is read before the holy Apocalypse.' p. 106^b has Arabic 'Was completed the holy Blessing, and with the completion of it was completed the pure book, the revelation (جليان) of Yūḥannā, the virgin, the beloved of our Lord Jesus Christ, on the holy sabbath day, which is the twentieth day of the month Abib of year a thousand one and ninety of the pure Martyrs, corresponding to the thirteenth day of the month Ṣafar, year seven and seventy-seven hundred of the Hijrah. And that was for the providing (اهتام) of the shaykh, the venerable, the revered, the deacon the honoured the most noble Rafāyīl, the son of the shaykh the archon (الارخن) Mikhāyīl. May God make lasting his provision (ادام اهتام). He wrought this beautiful memorial that he might find with it mercy before the throne (منبر) of our Lord Jesus Christ. He in his mercy shall cause him to attain to knowledge and practice, and bring him by his help to the kingdom of the heaven, after having fulfilled the term of his life and God shall give him long life and sound intellect, and true faith in our Lord Jesus Christ, and protect him with his holy angels henceforth and for ever. Amen. And the miserable scribe of G it asks every one who studies it to turn away (يصفح) from its error, and correct its fault (يسد خلة), and remember him with forgiveness of his sins; and (he who says any (prayer) may he have) reward thirty and sixty and an hundredfold, and in the next world life eternal. Amen.' After two vacant foll. comes the end of the Arabic preface, which begins on p. 149^a.

shortened forms $\text{X} = \text{HXOC}$, and much oftener W or $\text{U} = \text{ORWZEE}$ (also written BWZEE), followed by a word which is evidently the name of some hymn or verse, begin the rite. Words characteristic of the passage, sometimes taken from the text, make a 'versicle,' after which other Coptic words preceded by BWZEE or X probably belong to another hymn or verse. The following are the names of the hymns or tones occurring in the upper line: '(H) Babylon, (H) three things, (H) Joseph, (H) key, (H) the mystery, (H) Job, the prophet, a Pharisee, the joy, its key, my fathers, TEPRW "thy storm"? the seven ranks (or dignities), ZAWOI "would that"? my father the chief priest, I cast the book (?), I saw a lamb, the country, ANINENAI "bring these" (?), they became rich, rejoice, it was completed, concerning a woman, my Master, (H) thy Rōmania, place of this gift, I saw three, (H) if those.' The middle words are, 'Write the things which thou sawest, these are the things which he saith, the woman "Jezebel," he who will overcome, I will make him, take for the healing, I John saw, behold the lion overcame, I saw a black horse, I saw a great wonder, there was silence (XAC) in the heaven, the first woe passed, I saw an angel, these are the olive trees, a woman clad with the sun, I saw a great city, this is the place of patience, I saw a lamb, blessed are they, I saw a great wonder, these which the Theologos, they remembered, I saw a woman, the woman whom thou sawest, write that which thou sawest, I saw a white horse, blessed, I saw a fair city, the city of the great king.' The third or lower words are, 'I having fallen asleep, O Lord my God, (H) the ark, come and see (of my father Shenouti, Z), the soldiers toiled, they having brought the writings (he bowed the heaven, Z), the tympanum (?), the mounted men (the sweet, Z), I saw three crowns, Adam Abel (he of the wing, Z), I saw my hands, (H) I found the time, along the choirs, there is a dove, my scribe (three years, Z), he of the wings, the tympanum (I saw the lamb of God, Z), but ye, (H) the gold (the choice gold, Z), we worship (the evangelist, Z), Adam Abel, (H) Prologon (my virgin received, Z), my scribe (the queen, lover of gold, Z), (H) four (see seven bonds? Z), (H) two, (H) thou (fem.) art higher than the Cherubim, (H) I saw three crowns (come and see this bride, Z).' MS. Z agrees twice (xii. 1 and xx. 6) with the rest, occasionally omits and sometimes gives the Arabic name of the response or tone or hymn, 'the tone of the Amir Tādrus, of the great martyr (sic) Anba Shanūdah, of the four creatures, of the angel Michael, of St. George, of the king (الملك) Constantine, of the resurrection, of the

Z nativity of Mary, of the infants, of the Virgin, of the angel Gabriel sublime in annunciation, of Eudokia the queen, of the Son, Jesus Christ.'

At xxi. 19 after the word ΕΤΤΔΙΗΟΥΤ all the MSS. except BCN have a rubric, 'The bishop chants (ερξτενος).' D Arabic, 'The patriarch chants thus to tone? or the bishop or the priest or, if he should be chosen, the deacon.' Then ΔΠΟΚ ΔΙΝΔΥ ΕΠΚΩΤ ΠΟΥΠΟΛΙC ΕCΟΥΧ (ΕCΤΟΥC, E: -ΩΤC, F: ΠΤΟΥC, Δ) ΠΠΟΥΒ ΖΙΩΠΙ ΞΞΞΞΙ ΖΙ(ΟΥ, Λ)ΞΔΡΓΑΡΙΤΗC ΕΘ- ΠΕCΩC ΕΡΕΠΕCΩΤΗΡ ΞΕΠΤΕCΞΗ† ΕΥ†ΧΛΟΞ ΖΙΤΑΦΕ ΠΠΗ ΕΘΞΞΕΙ ΞΞΞΟΥ 'I saw the circuit of a city gilded with gold, beautiful with precious stones and pearl, our Saviour being in her midst crowning them who love him.' Further, after ΧΑΡΧΗΔΩΠ, CΑΡΔΙΠΟΠ, ΤΟΠΔΙΟΠ, and ΔΞΞΕΘΙΤΟC follows the response which in D the people are directed to chant, ΕΡΕΠΕCΩΤΗΡ &c. 'having &c.' B gives this form in a rough later hand, the response varying, 'our Saviour being,' 'crowning with honour them who love him,' 'Jesus being in its midst,' 'Emmanuel being in its midst.'

He who abhorreth the idols—art thou (a) temple robber? ²³ He who boasteth himself in the law—through the transgression of the law dishonourest thou God? ²⁴ For (the) name of God is blas-phemed among the Gentiles because of you, according as it is written. ²⁵ For there is profit in [the] circumcision

if thou should do the law; but if thou art (a) transgressor of the law, thy circumcision became uncircumcision. ²⁶ If then [the] uncircumcision should keep the righteousness of the law, will not his uncircumcision be reckoned for [a] circumcision? ²⁷ And the natural uncircumcision fulfilling (the) work of the law will judge thee ^a who art (a Jew)

III. What then is the advantage (lit. the more) of the Jew? or what is (the) profit of the circumcision? ² Much it is according to every way: first indeed because they were intrusted with the words of God. ³ For what if some were unbelieving? Will their unbelief do away with the faith of God? ⁴ It shall not be. But let God be speaking truth, and every man speaking falsehood; according as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy words and overcome when thou wilt be judged. ⁵ If our wrongdoing will set up the righteousness of God, what shall (lit. will) we say? die, she is free from (the) law, not to be called 'adulteress,' should she be with another husband. ⁴ Wherefore then, my brethren, ye also died to (the) law through (the) body of Christ, to become (united) to another, that is to say, him who rose from them who are dead, that ye might bear fruit to God. ⁵ For we being in the flesh, the passions of the sins, those through the law, were working in our members (the) bearing fruit to (the) death. ⁶ But now we were discharged (lit. done away with) from (the) law, having died in that in which we were held, so that we might be servants in a newness of the spirit, and not in an oldness of [a] writing. ⁷ What then shall (lit. will) we say? (The) law is (the) sin. It shall not be. But (α) (the) sin I had not known, except I knew it through the law. For [the] lust I was not knowing, except (the) law said: 'Thou shalt not lust'; ⁸ but (the) sin having taken an occasion through the commandment worked all lust in me: for without (the) law (the) sin was being dead. ⁹ But I was being alive once without the law. forth, (the) sin lived, ¹⁰ but I died; and the commandment was found ^a(such that, being) intended (ϸ) for me unto (the) life, it (lit. this) became for me unto [a] death: ¹¹ for (the) sin took an occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and killed me through it. ¹² Wherefore (the) law indeed is holy, and the commandment is holy, and is just, and it is good. ¹³ The good then became for me unto [a] death. It shall not be. But (Δ) it is (the) sin: that by means of the good, (the) sin might be manifested (as) working for me [a] death: that (the) sin might be more sinful (lit. sinner) through the commandment. ¹⁴ For we know indeed that the law is spiritual, but I am carnal, having been sold under (the) sin. ¹⁵ For that which I work I know not: for not that which I wish is that (lit. this) which I do: but (Δ) that which I hate I do. ¹⁶ If that which I wish not is that (lit. this) which I do, I assent to (lit. thee be called (i.e. invited). ⁸ That is to say, that the sons of (the) flesh—these are not the sons of God; but (Δ) the sons of the promise will be reckoned for a seed.

⁹ For this word is that of (ΦΔ) a promise: 'According to this time I shall come, and a son shall be to Sarra.' ¹⁰ But not only (so), but (Δ) also (the) Erebekka as well (ΚΕ), having conceived from one bed, of Isaac our father. ¹¹ For when they were not yet born, nor yet had they done good or evil, that the choice which God ordained from (the) first might be permanent, being not from works, but (Δ) from him who calleth, ¹² it was said to her: 'The elder (lit. great) shall be servant to the younger (lit. little).'

¹³ According as it is written: 'Jacob indeed I loved, but Ēsau I hated.' ¹⁴ What then shall (lit. will) we say? Is there [a] wrongdoing with God? It shall not be.

¹⁵ For he saith to Moses: 'I shall (lit. will) have mercy on whom I shall (lit. will) have mercy, and I shall (lit. will) have compassion on whom I shall (lit. will) have compassion.'

¹⁶ So (ΔΔΡΔ) then it is not of him who wisheth, nor is it of him who runneth, but (Δ) it is of God who hath mercy.

Israel pursuing the law of [the] righteousness reached not the law. ³² Why? Because it is not from (the) faith, but (Δ) as from works. They stumbled at the stone of stumbling; according as it is written: ³³ 'Behold I shall (lit. will) set in Siōn a stone of stumbling and a rock of offence, and he who believeth him shall not be ashamed.'

X. My brethren, (the) good pleasure of my heart and my prayer which I make to God for them (is) unto [a] salvation. ² For I witness to them that a zeal for (ΠΤΕ) God (it is) which is in them, but (Δ) not according to [a] knowledge. ³ For being ignorant of the righteousness of God, and seeking to establish their own, they were not subject to the righteousness of God.

which is (†) from (the) faith saith thus, Say not in thy heart: ‘Who will be able to go up to (the) heaven?’ That is to say, that he may bring Christ down: ⁷ or, Who will be able to go down to (the) abyss? That is to say, that he may bring Christ up from them who are dead. ⁸ But (2.) what saith the Scripture? The word is near thee; it is (X^H) in thy mouth, and it is (X^H) in thy heart, that is to say, (the) word of (the) faith which we proclaim, ⁹ that if thou shouldst confess with (lit. in, thus again) thy mouth, that Jesus is the Lord, and believe with thy heart that God raised him from them who are dead, thou shalt be saved: ¹⁰ for with the heart they believe him unto [a] righteousness, but with their mouth they confess him unto [a] salvation. ¹¹ For the Scripture saith: ‘Every one who believeth him shall not be ashamed.’ ¹² For there is no separation of the Jew and the Greek: for this Lord is of all, being rich to all who cry up toward him. ¹³ Every one who will pray (the) name of the Lord shall be saved.

a choice of [a] grace existed. ⁶ But if in [a] grace, then it is not from works: otherwise the grace will not be grace any more. ⁷ What then (is) that? That which Israel sought, this he obtained not; but the chosen (lit. choice) acquired (it). But (the) rest were hardened of heart. ⁸ According as it is written: 'God gave to them a spirit of stupor, and eyes not to see, and ears not to hear until to-day.' ⁹ And David saith: 'Let their table be to them a snare and a trap and a stumblingblock and a retribution to them. ¹⁰ Let their eyes be darkened not to see; their back let it be bent (down) always.' ¹¹ I say then, Did they stumble that they might fall? It shall not be: but (α) in their transgression (the) salvation happened to the Gentiles, that they may rouse their jealousy. ¹² If their transgression was the (lit. a) riches of the world, and their deficiency was riches of the Gentiles, then how great is their fulness?

¹³ But I say to you, namely the Gentiles. Moreover, so far as I am apostle of the Gentiles, I glorify my ministry:

passions of God to present your bodies as a sacrifice living, holy, pleasing to God, and your reasonable worship, pleasing.

² And that ye should no more share fashion with this age.

But (Δ) should change your form in a newness of the understanding, to prove what is (the) wish of God, the good which is pleasing and which is complete. ³ For I say through the grace which is given to me, to every one who is among you, not to think grandly beyond that which is right to think, but (Δ) to think prudently, each one according as God divided to him a measure of faith.

⁴ For as in one body we have many members, but all the members have not one work: ⁵ thus we also, namely many, being one body in Christ, are each of us members of one another. ⁶ But having graces diversified according to (the) measure of the grace which is given to us.

Whether [α] prophecy, according to the likeness of (the) faith; ⁷ or a ministry, in the ministry; or he who teacheth, be persuaded in his own heart. ⁶ He who thought of (ε) the day, thought unto the Lord; and he who ate, ate to the Lord; for he giveth thanks to God: and he who eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giveth thanks to God. ⁷ For there is not any of us (who) will live to himself, and there is not any of us (who) will die to himself. ⁸ For if we shall (lit. will, thus again) live, we shall live to the Lord; but if we shall die, we shall die to the Lord: whether then we shall live or we shall die, we are those of the Lord. ⁹ Therefore Christ died and he lived, that he might be lord of them who are dead and them who live. ¹⁰ But why judgest thou thy brother? Nay, thou also, why despisest thou thy brother? for we all shall (lit. will) be made to stand before the judgement seat of God. ¹¹ For it is written: 'I live, [I] saith the Lord, (and I swear) that every knee shall be bent to me, and every tongue confess to God.' ¹² So then each one of us will give account for himself to God. ¹³ Judge not then any more one another; but (Δ) judge this rather, not to set a stumbling-block or an offence for thy brother. ¹⁴ I know and I am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean through itself, except to him who thinketh of something that it is unclean, (then) to that one it is unclean. ¹⁵ For if because of [a] food thy brother was to be offended, then thou walkest not any more according to [a] love. Destroy not him for whom Christ died, with thy food. ¹⁶ Let not then your good be blasphemed: ¹⁷ for the kingdom of God was not being in [an] eating and [a] drinking; but (Δ) it was in [a] righteousness, and [a] peace, and [a] joy in the (lit. a) holy spirit. ¹⁸ For he who serveth Christ in these things pleaseth God, and is upright among [the] men. ¹⁹ So then let us pursue the things of [the] peace, and the things of [the] edifying one another. ²⁰ Pull not down the work of God because of [a] food. All things indeed are clean; but (Δ) it is [an] evil to the man who will eat ^awith offence. ²¹ It is good not to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, and that in which thy brother will stumble.

also of Stephana: further, I know not whether I baptised another. ¹⁷ For Christ sent me not to baptise, but (α) to preach good tidings, not in a wisdom of word, that the cross of Christ should not become vain. ¹⁸ For the word of the cross to (ἸΤΕΝ) them indeed who will perish is a foolishness, but to us (pronoun) namely those who will be saved it is [a] power of God. ¹⁹ For it is written: 'I shall (lit. will) destroy (the) wisdom of the wise, and (the) knowledge of the understanding ones I shall (lit. will) reject.' ²⁰ Where was a wise man? Where was a scribe? Where was a searcher of this age? Did not God make (the) wisdom of the world foolish? ²¹ For since from the wisdom of God the world knew not God through the wisdom, God was well pleased through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save them who believe. ²² Since the Jews ask signs, and the Greeks seek for the wisdom: ²³ but we (pron.) proclaim Christ crucified: the Jews indeed it is a scandal to them, but (to) the Gentiles it is a foolishness; ²⁴ but to us (pron.), namely those who will be saved, the Jews and the Greeks, Christ is a power of God and a wisdom of God.

will be burnt, will suffer loss: but he himself will be saved, but thus as through [a] fire. ¹⁶ Ye know not that ye (are) a temple of God, and the spirit of God dwelt in you. ¹⁷ He, then, who will defile the temple of God, this (one) will God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which ye are. ¹⁸ Let not any one deceive himself. He who thinketh among you that he is wise in this age, let him become foolish, that he may become wise. ¹⁹ For (the) wisdom of this world is a foolishness with God. For it is written: 'He who overpowereth the wise in their craftiness'; ²⁰ and again: 'The Lord knoweth the reasonings of wise (men) that they are vain.' ²¹ Wherefore let not any one boast himself in [the] men. made rich without us ye reigned: and I would that ye had reigned, that we also might share with you in reigning.

⁹ For I think that God manifested us, namely, the apostles last, as sentenced to death, because we became a spectacle to the world and the angels and the men. ¹⁰ We are fools because of Christ, ye are wise in Christ; we (are) weak, but ye are strong; ye are honoured, but we are despised.

¹¹ Up to this hour we hunger, and we thirst, we are naked, and we are buffeted, and we are not settled; ¹² we toil, working with ($\bar{\eta}$) our own hands: they rail at us, and we bless them; being persecuted, we are longsuffering; ¹³ being blasphemed, we beseech them: we became as the rubbish of this world. We became the filth of every one up to this hour. ¹⁴ I was not reproaching you, writing these things to you, but (Δ) teaching you as beloved sons of mine. ¹⁵ For if ye have ten thousand guides in Christ, but (Δ) not many fathers: in Christ Jesus through the Gospel I (pron.) begat you.

¹⁶ I beseech you, then, be ye like me. ¹⁷ Therefore I sent to you Timotheos, who is my beloved child, and faithful in the Lord: he (lit. this) will remind you of my ways in Christ Jesus, according as I teach in every place in all the churches. ¹⁸ But as though I come not to you, some were proud. ¹⁹ But I shall come to you quickly, if it be (the) wish of the Lord, and I shall know, not (the) word of them who were proud, but (Δ) their power. ²⁰ For the kingdom of God was not being in (the) word, but (Δ) it was in [a] power. ²¹ What then wish ye? that I should come to you with (lit. in) a rod, or in [a] love of spirit of meekness? V. A fornication is actually heard of among you, and a fornication such as is not among the Gentiles even, so that one should take (the) wife of his father. ² And ye also are proud: and why rather mourned ye not? ²¹ I became to them without law as one without law, though I am not one without law of God, but (α) being under (the) law of Christ, that I might gain them without law.

²² I became to them who are weak as one weak, that I might gain them who are weak: I became to all men all kinds, that by all means I might save some. ²³ But I do all these things because of the Gospel, that I may share it (with others). ²⁴ Ye know not that they who run in the stadium, run indeed all, but one receiveth the palm.

But thus run, that ye may attain. ²⁵ But every one who striveth for the mastery layeth hold on himself in everything: they indeed, that they may receive a crown which will perish; but we an imperishable. ²⁶ But I (pron.) run thus, as not covertly; thus I fight, not as beating the air: ²⁷ but (α) I bruise my body, and I make it servant: lest by any means, having proclaimed to others, I myself should be found [being] reprobate.

X. For I wish you not to be (lit. being) ignorant, my brethren, that all our fathers were being under the cloud, and they all passed through the sea; ² and they were all baptised unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; ³ and the same spiritual food they all ate; ⁴ and the same spiritual drink they all drank: for they were drinking from a spiritual rock, following them: but the rock was Christ. ⁵ But (Δ.) ¹⁸ For first indeed, being about to assemble together in the church, I hear of divisions being among you, and I partly believe (it). ¹⁹ For there must be heresies among you, that the chosen also who are among you might be manifested. ²⁰ Being about to assemble, then, together, it is not to eat a Lord's Supper: ²¹ for each one taketh before (another) from his supper to eat; there is (one) who is hungry indeed, but there is (one) who is drunken. ²² For have ye not houses to eat and to drink (in)? Or despised ye the church of God, and shamed them who have not? What shall (lit. will, thus again) I say to you? (Is it) that I justify you in this? I shall not justify you.

²³ For I (pron.) received from the Lord that which I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus in the night in which he was about to be betrayed (lit. given) took a loaf; ²⁴ and he gave thanks, he brake it, and he said: 'This is my body, which will be given for you: this do for (ε) remembrance of me.' ²⁵ Thus

³ For I delivered unto you first that which I received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures; ⁴ and that he was buried; and that he rose in the third day according to the Scriptures; ⁵ and he appeared unto Kēpha; then he appeared to the twelve; ⁶ afterwards he appeared (to) above five hundred brethren at once, of these the majority of them abide up to now, but others fell asleep.

⁷ Then he appeared to Jacōbos, then he appeared to all the apostles; ⁸ but last of them all, as one born out of due time, he appeared to me also. ⁹ For I am the least^a among all the apostles, being not worthy to be called 'apostle,' because that I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But in a grace of God I am that which I am: and his grace which is in me was not void; but (Δ) I toiled more than they all: but not I, but (Δ) the grace of God which is with me. ¹¹ Whether then I or they, we proclaim thus, and thus ye believed. ¹² But if Christ is proclaimed, that he rose from them who are dead, how say some among you, that there will not be resurrection of the dead. ¹³ But if there will not be resurrection of the dead, then neither did Christ rise: ¹⁴ but if Christ rose not, then our proclaiming is void, your faith also is void. ¹⁵ But again we shall (lit. will) be found false witnesses of God; because we witnessed of God that he raised Christ, ^a whom he raised not, if then the dead will not rise. ¹⁶ For if the dead will not rise, then Christ rose not: ¹⁷ but if Christ rose not, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins. ¹⁸ Then they who fell asleep in Christ perished. ¹⁹ But if in this life only we hoped on Christ, then we are pitiable more than all men. ²⁰ But now Christ rose from them who are dead, (the) firstfruits of them who fell asleep. ²¹ For since through a man (the) death happened, through man also (the) resurrection of the dead. ²² For as in Adam we shall (lit. will) all die, thus also in Christ we shall (lit. will) all live: ²³ each one in his order.

boast, my brethren, this which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. ³² If humanly (speaking) I fought with the wild beast in Ephesos, what is my gain? If the dead will not rise, let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we shall (lit. will) die. ³³ Go not astray: for the evil words corrupt the good hearts. ³⁴ Be watchful righteously, and sin not; for an ignorance of God (it is) which is in some: I spoke to you in [a] shame. ³⁵ But (Δ) there is one (who) will say: 'How will the dead rise? But in what body came they?' ³⁶ [The] senseless (man), that which thou (pron.) sowest, liveth not unless it die: ³⁷ and that which thou sowest—the body which will be is (not, pron.) that which thou sowest, but (Δ) it is a grain, naked, whether [a] wheat or another of (the) rest of the seeds; ³⁸ but God giveth (a) body to it, according as he wished, and to each of the seeds he giveth their own body. ³⁹ All flesh is not the same flesh, but (Δ) a different flesh indeed of the men, a different flesh of the beasts, a different flesh of the birds, different that of the fishes.

but (2) the psychic; after it the spiritual. ⁴⁷ The first man is from (the) earth, one of earth: the second man is from (the) heaven. ⁴⁸ As the one of earth, thus also the ones of earth: ⁴⁹ and as the one of heaven, thus also the ones of heaven. And as we bore (the) image of the one of earth, let us bear the image of the one of heaven.

⁵⁰ But this I say, my brethren, that flesh and blood will not inherit the kingdom of God; neither will (the) corruption inherit the incorruption. ⁵¹ Lo, a mystery I say to you: we shall (lit. will) not all fall indeed, but we shall (lit. will) all be changed, ⁵² in a moment, in a twinkling of eye, at (lit. in) the last trumpet: for the trumpet shall call, and the dead shall rise incorruptible; and we also shall (lit. will) be changed. ⁵³ For this which will corrupt must be clothed with the incorruption; and this which will die be clothed with the immortality. ⁵⁴ But whenever this which will die should be clothed with the immortality, then shall come to pass the word which is written: '(The) death was swallowed up unto a victory.' ⁵⁵ Where was thy victory, (the) death? Where was thy sting, (the) death? ⁵⁶ For (the) sting of (the) death is (the) sin; but (the) power of (the) sin is (the) law. ⁵⁷ But thanks be given to God, [this] who giveth the victory to us through our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁵⁸ Wherefore, my brethren beloved, be ye steadfast, immovèable, abounding in the work of the Lord always, knowing that your toil is not void in the Lord.

XVI. But concerning the collection which was made concerning the saints, as I commanded the churches of (the) Galatia, do ye also thus. ² Every first of the sabbaths let each one of you lay by him, treasuring (lit. throwing in) according as (lit. that in which) his way will prosper (lit. be straightened), lest by any means, should I come, then should be countings up. ³ But if I should come, them of whom ye approve, I shall send these through letters to take your grace to Jerusalem: ⁴ but if the work is worthy to cause me to go also, they shall walk with me. ⁵ But I shall come to you, if I should pass by (the) Macedonia; for I shall

Or the things which I counsel, did I counsel them according to flesh, that the yea yea and the nay nay should be with me? ¹⁸ God is surety (lit. faithful) that our word which was (spoken) to you was not a yea and a nay, but (Δ) a yea (is) that which was in it. ¹⁹ For the Son of God, Christ Jesus, he (lit. this) whom we proclaimed among you through me and Silouanos and Timotheos, was not a yea and a nay, but (Δ) a yea (is) that which is in him: ²⁰ for all the promises of God which are in him are a yea: therefore also through him is the Amēn ^a of God unto a glory through us. ²¹ But he who confirmeth us with you is Christ, and he who saved us is God; ²² and he sealed us, and he gave to us the earnest of the spirit into our hearts. ²³ But I (pron.) call to God as witness upon my soul, that sparing you I came not any more a savour from [a] death to [a] death; but to some a savour from [a] life to [a] life. And who is sufficient for these things? ¹⁷ For we were not being as many, trafficking with (the) word of God: but (Δ) as from [a] sincerity, but (Δ) as from God, before God, in Christ we speak.

III. Begin we again to commend ourselves, or do we need epistles as others commending us to you or from you?

² Because ye are our epistle written in our hearts, being known, being read by all men; ³ ye are manifested that ye (are) an epistle of Christ, ministered through us, being written not in [an] ink, but (Δ) in [a] spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but (Δ) in tables of heart of flesh.

⁴ But we have such a persuasion through Christ towards God: ⁵ not that through ourselves only we are sufficient to think of a work as that (it is) from ourselves; in this measure. ⁵ I thought it necessary then to exhort the brethren, that they should come before to you, and prepare before your blessing, which ye promised beforehand^a, that it might be prepared, but thus as [a] beneficence^b and not (as) extortion^c. ⁶ But this it is, that he who is sparing (in) sowing shall reap also sparingly; and he who soweth beneficently shall reap also beneficently: ⁷ each one according as he chose for himself in his heart, not grudgingly^d or from a necessity: for a rejoicing giver (it is) whom God loveth.

⁸ But it is possible for God to make all grace multiply to you, that (the) sufficiency, being to you in everything always, ye may abound in every good thing: ⁹ according as it is written: ‘He distributed, he gave to the poor; his righteousness abideth for ever.’ ¹⁰ But he who supplieth the seed to him who soweth shall supply the bread also to him for [an] eating; and he shall cause your plants to grow; he shall cause them to grow, namely (ῥῶξε) the fruits of ministering to you^a, and being with you, having been in want, I put not burden upon one of you; for my deficiency the brethren who came from (the) Macedonia filled it up^b; and in everything I kept myself, being unburdened to (lit. from) you, and I shall keep (so) still (ON). ¹⁰ The truth of Christ is in me, that this boast will not be shut off from me (εποι) in the places of [the] Achaia. ¹¹ Why? Because I love you not. God knoweth. ¹² But that which I do, I shall (lit. will) do it still (ON), that I may cut off (the) pretext of them who wish to find pretext; that they may be found in that in which they boast themselves according as ourselves. ¹³ For these are as false apostles, workers of subtlety, changing themselves into (the) form of apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ And it is not a wonder. Satan also himself changeth himself into (the) form of an angel of (the) light. ¹⁵ It is not then a great (thing) if his ministers also change themselves into (the) form of ministers of [the] righteousness, these whose end will be according to their works.

Barnabas; but I took Titos also with me. ² But I went up according to a revelation, and I laid before them the Gospel, which I proclaim among the Gentiles; but apart to them who ^a were thought (much of), lest by any means I ran vainly, or was running. ³ But (Δ) neither Titos even (ΚΕ)^b who was with me, being a Greek, could be compelled to be circumcised.

⁴ But because of the false brethren who came in to spy out our freedom, this which we have in Christ, that they might make us servants: ⁵ these in whose subjection we stayed not for an hour; that the truth of the Gospel might be permanent with you. ⁶ But from them who think that they (lit. we) are (something); as to (Ω) the manner of which they once were being, it makes not any difference to me: God accepteth not person of man. For they, who think that they (lit. we) are something, added not anything to me: ⁷ but (Δ) on^c the contrary, having seen that I was entrusted with the Gospel of the uncircumcision, according as Peter was entrusted with that of the circumcision. ⁸ For he who worked in Peter unto an apostleship of (the) circumcision worked in me also unto the Gentiles. ⁹ And having known the grace which is given to me, James and Kēphas and John, who are thought to be pillars, Gave the right hand to me and Barnabas unto [a] fellowship, that we indeed might (be) unto the Gentiles, but they unto the circumcision; ¹⁰ only that we should take care of the poor; and this I hastened to do. ¹¹ But Kēphas having come into (the) Antiochia, I opposed him, face to face, because he had been condemned. ¹² For before that any came from James he was wont to eat with the Gentiles: but they having come he withdrew by himself, and he separated himself, fearing them of (the) circumcision. ¹³ And the rest of the Jews were hypocritical with him; so that Barnabas also went (away) in their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ But having seen that they stood not in the truth of the Gospel, I said to Kēphas before all: 'If thou thyself a Jew livest as a Gentile^a and not as a Jew^b how compellest thou the Gentiles to Judaize?' ¹⁵ But we are by nature Jews, and not of the Gentiles, sinners. ¹⁶ We are knowing that the man will not be justified from the works of the law, except from (the) faith of Jesus Christ; and we also believed Christ Jesus, that we might be justified from (the) faith of Christ, not from the works of the law: because from the works of the law will no^a flesh be justified. ¹⁷ But if, seeking for being justified in Christ, we also were found to be (lit. being) sinners, then Christ is a minister of (the) sin. It shall not be. ¹⁸ For if the things which I pulled down, these again I build, I prove myself (a) transgressor. ¹⁹ For I (pron.) through [a] law died to the law, that I might live with God. I was crucified with Christ; ²⁰ I live; no longer I, but Christ liveth in me: but that in which I live now in (the) flesh, I lived in the faith of (the) Son of God, he (lit. this) who loved me, and he gave himself for me. ²¹ I shall (lit. will) not reject the grace of God.

For if from (the) law is [the] righteousness, then Christ died without a cause. III. O [the] foolish Galatians, who bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was fore-written, having been crucified? ² This only (is it) which I wish to know from you. Received ye the spirit from the works of the law or from (the) hearing of (the) faith? ³ Thus ye are foolish. Having begun in the spirit, [but] now ye complete in (the) flesh. ⁴ Ye suffer many toils in vain, if indeed (2E) in vain.

⁵ He then who supplieth the spirit to you, and who worketh powers among you, is it something (OY) from the works of the law, or from (the) hearing of the faith? ⁶ According as Abraham believed God, it was reckoned to him for [a] righteousness. ⁷ Ye know, then, that they (who are) from (the) faith, these (are) the sons of Abraam. ⁸ But the Scripture having foreseen that from (the) faith God will justify the Gentiles, preached good tidings before to Abraam:

a covenant of a man, should it be confirmed, no one rejecteth it, nor add they fresh ordinance. ¹⁶ But promises were promised to Abraam and his seed. He was not saying: 'And his seeds,' as about many; but (א) as about one: 'And thy seed,' which is Christ. ¹⁷ But this I say, that a covenant having been confirmed before by God, (the) law which happened after four hundred (and) thirty years dissolveth it not, to cause it to do away with the promise. ¹⁸ For if the inheritance is from (the) law, then it is no more from a promise: but God granted (it)^a to Abraam through a promise. ¹⁹ What then is (the) law? It was given (ΧΔϚ) because of the transgressions, until the seed should come, to whom he promised; having been ordained through angels, in (the) hand of a mediator: ²⁰ but the mediator is not of (ΦΔ) one, but God is one. ²¹ (The) law then was against the promises of God. It shall not be: for if law had been given, it being possible for it to give life, certainly [the] righteousness would have been^b from the law. ²² But (א) (the) Scripture shut (up) everything in (the) sin, that the promise through (the) faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them who believe. ²³ Before the faith came we were being kept under the law, being shut (up) unto the faith which cometh to be revealed. ²⁴ Wherefore the law guided us to Christ, that we might be justified from (the) faith.

²⁵ But the faith having come, we are no more under a guide. ²⁶ For ye all are sons of God, through (the) faith, in Christ Jesus. ²⁷ For ye all, namely they who were baptised in Christ, clothe you with Christ. ²⁸ There is not Jew nor Greek, there is not servant nor free, there is not male nor female: for ye all are one in Christ. ²⁹ If ye (are) they of Christ, then ye (are) they of (the) seed of Abraam, according to the promise ye (are) heirs. IV. I say that as long as the heir is a little child there is not any difference between (α) him and a servant, though he be (lit. being) lord of all things. ² But (α) he was under guardians and stewards unto the term of his father. ³ Thus we also, when we were children, were being (ΧΗ) under the elements

¹¹ according to the ordinance from before^a the ages, this which he made in Christ Jesus our Lord, ¹² he (lit. this) in whom we received the boldness and the access in [a] confidence through his faith. ¹³ Therefore I ask, not to faint in the tribulations for you, which is your glory.

¹⁴ Therefore I bend my knees to (ⲉⲁ) the Father, ¹⁵ from whom are named^b all the families^c in the heavens and upon the earth, ¹⁶ that he may give to you according to (the) riches of his glory to be strengthened in [a] power through his spirit. ¹⁷ To cause Christ to dwell in the inner man through the faith in your hearts; that ye, being rooted in [a] love, being firmly founded, ¹⁸ may be able to apprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and the length and the height and the depth, ¹⁹ to know the love, which exceedeth (the) knowledge of Christ^d, that ye may be completed in all the completion of God, ²⁰ for whom it is possible to do more than all things abundantly (more)

^a Lit. 'of from first of,' var. 'which from first of.' ^b Lit. 'they say (the) name.'
^c Cf. Luke ii. 4. ^d ⲡⲧⲉ is correct after ⲧ, and ⲙⲉ after ⲡ, and Ⲉ is more usual (Matt. v. 20) after ⲉⲣⲃⲟⲩⲟ; therefore the Greek seems wrongly rendered 'the love, which aboundeth, of (the) knowledge of Christ.'

immediately concerning ^a my affairs: ²⁴ but I am persuaded in the Lord that I (pron.) shall (lit. will) come to you quickly. ²⁵ But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditos, the brother and the fellow-worker and my fellow-soldier, but being apostle to you and minister of my need; ²⁶ since he was loving to see you all, and he was grieving, because that ye heard that he was sick: ²⁷ for indeed (ΚΕ) he was sick until he was near unto (the) death.

And God had mercy on him; but not only on him, but (2.) on me also, that I might not take grief upon grief again. ²⁸ More hastily, then, I sent him, that, should ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I also may be without grief. ²⁹ Receive him, then, in the Lord in all joy; and let such be honoured by you: ³⁰ because concerning the work of the Lord he was near up to (the) death, having risked his life, that he might fill up your deficiency of the service, which befell (51) me.

III. Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write coming into the portion of the lot of the saints in (the) light; ¹³ he (ΦΔΙ) who saved us from (the) authority of (the) darkness, and he removed us into the kingdom of (the) Son of his love; ¹⁴ he (ΦΔΙ) through whom we received the redemption, the forgiveness of our sins: ¹⁵ who is (the) image of God, the invisible, the firstborn of all (πισθεν) creation.

¹⁶ Because in him all things were created, those which are in the heavens and those which are upon (the) earth, those which are seen and those which are not seen, whether the thrones, or the dominions, or the governments, or the authorities; all things became through him, and they were created unto him; ¹⁷ and he (it is) who is before all things, and all things stand in him. ¹⁸ And he is (the) head of the body of the church: who himself is the beginning as (ᾱ) firstborn from them who are dead; that he might be first in all things. ¹⁹ Because in him the whole fulness was pleased to dwell [in him]; ²⁰ and through him to reconcile all things unto him^a, having made them at (ᾱ) peace through the blood of his cross; through him (or 'it'), whether the things which are upon (the) earth or the things which are in the heavens.

with Christ from the elements of the world, why reckon ye yourselves as those^a living in the world? ²¹ Take not, nor taste, nor approach ²² to all things which are (ΧΗ) for (the) destruction, so as not to use them: according to the orders and the teaching of [the] men; ²³ which are things in which there is a show^b indeed of [a] wisdom in (the) wish of a service, and a humbleness of heart, and an unsparingness of (ε) the body, not in [an] honour, in [a] satisfying of (the) flesh.

III. If then ye rose with Christ, seek for the things above the place in which Christ was, sitting on the right hand of God. ² Think of the things above, not those which are upon (the) earth. ³ For ye died, and your life (is) hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ If Christ should be manifested, your life, then ye also are being manifested with him in [a] glory.

⁵ Kill your members which are upon the earth; [the] fornication, [the] uncleanness, [the] passion, [the] evil desire,

I. In many (ΘΟ) manners and many (ΜΗΝΥ) forms from (the) beginning God spake to our fathers from the prophets,² but at (the) end of these days he spake to us in a Son, he (ΦΔΙ) whom he appointed (ΧΔΥ) heir of all, and through him he made the ages; ³ who himself is the splendour of his glory, and (the) form of his substance, upholding (the) universe by (ΘΕΝ) (the) word of his power.

priesthood of the Levite; for law was given to the people ^ain its time; then what was (the) need for there to be another priest according to (the) order of Melchisedek, and not to say, 'According to (the) order of Aaron?' ¹² For the priesthood being about to be removed, necessarily there is a removing of the law also. ¹³ For he concerning whom these things are said belonged to^b another tribe, that (lit. this) from which no one attended at the altar. ¹⁴ For it is manifest from (the) first, that our Lord sprang from Jouda; that tribe from which Moses said not anything concerning priest. ¹⁵ And it is yet even the more manifested, if according to (the) form of Melchisedek will arise another priest. ¹⁶ He (ΦΔΙ) who was made not according to a law of a carnal commandment, but (Δ) according to a power of an indissoluble life. ¹⁷ For it is witnessed of him: 'Thou art (the) priest for ever, according to (the) order of Melchisedek.' ¹⁸ For indeed there will be a rejection of the first commandment because of its weakness and its unprofitableness, ¹⁹ for the law completed not anything.

²⁰ for also our God is a devouring fire. XIII. Let [the] brotherly love be permanent. ² Forget not [the] hospitality: for through this, unawares, some received angels. ³ Remember those who are bound as being bound with them; those who are pained as being yourselves also in body. ⁴ The marriage (is) honourable in all, the bed pure: for the fornicators and the adulterers God will judge. ⁵ Your manner of life is^a not for [a] loving of silver. The things which are (to you) shall suffice for you; for he himself said: 'I shall not forsake thee, nor shall I leave thee.' ⁶ So that being assured we (pron.) say: 'The Lord is my helper; I shall not fear what it is which man will do to me.' ⁷ Remember your rulers who spake to you the word of God: these (of) whom ye see the outcome of their walk (of life), imitate their faith.

⁸ Jesus Christ yesterday and to-day is the same^b and for ever. ⁹ Let not various and strange doctrines carry you

away: for it is good to establish your heart in [a] grace, not in meats, these in which they who walked in them found not profit. ¹⁰ We having an altar, this from which they have not authority to eat who minister at the tabernacle. ¹¹ For the animals whose blood was brought into the holy (places) for (the) sin through the high priest,—(the) body of these is burnt outside the camp. ¹² Therefore also Jesus, that he might cleanse the people through his own blood, suffered outside the gate. ¹³ Now then let us go out unto him outside the camp, bearing his reproach. ¹⁴ For we have not here a permanent city, but (Δ) that which cometh we seek for. ¹⁵ Let us then offer through him sacrifices of ^a blessing always to God, that is to say, (the) fruit of our lips, confessing his name. ¹⁶ But [the] beneficence and the sharing

(with others) forget not: for such sacrifices are pleasing to God. ¹⁷ Be persuaded by your rulers, and obey them:

⁸ But we know that the law is good, if one should do to it^b as law. ⁹ Knowing thou this, that the law was not being (ΧΗ) for the righteous (man), but (Δ) it was (ΧΗ) for the lawless and the unruly and the ungodly and the sinners, and them who are not sanctified, for the profane-hearted, for the father-slayers, for the mother-slayers, for the man-slayers, ¹⁰ for the fornicators, for the sleepers with male, for the deceivers of man, for the sellers of free-men, for the false speakers, for false swearers, and every other thing which is contrary to the sound doctrine; ¹¹ according to the Gospel of (the) glory of the blessed God, this with which I (pron.) was entrusted.

^a The word seems to confuse στόχος and στοίχος. ^b ΠΔϚ appears to be the literal rendering of αὐτῷ required by χρηται but not by ἰρι.

TO TIMOTHEOS 2. XII.

I. Paul, (the) apostle of Christ Jesus through (the) wish of God according to the promise of (the) life which is in Christ Jesus, ² to Timotheos my beloved child, (the) grace, (the) mercy, (the) peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord. ³ I give thanks to God whom I serve from my ancestors^a, in pure conscience, as remembering thee unfailingly in my prayers by night and day, ⁴ loving to see thee, remembering thy tears, that I may be filled with joy.

⁵ Remembering the faith which is in thee unfeigned; this which dwelt first in (the) mother of thy mother Lōēdē, and tidings, fulfil thy ministry. ⁶ For I (pron.) now shall (lit. will) be ^aremoved, and (the) time of my dissolution drew near. ⁷ The good strife I strove. The course I completed. The faith I kept. ⁸ Henceforth is laid (up) for me the crown of [the] righteousness, that which the Lord will give to me in that day, the righteous judge; but not only to me alone, but (Δ) also all who loved his manifestation. ⁹ Haste thee to come to me quickly: ¹⁰ for Dēmas forsook me, having loved this present age, he went to Thessalonikia; Kriskēs to [the] Galatia; Titos to Dalmatia; ¹¹ Loukas alone (it is) who is with me. Markos, take him away, bring him with thee, for he is serviceable to me unto [a] ministry. ¹² But Tychikos I sent to (ἤτε) Ephesos. ¹³ The cloak which I left in Trōas with Karpō, bring it (when thou) art coming, and the books also, especially the parchments. ¹⁴ Alexandros,

I. James, (the) servant of God and our Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion, hail. ² Be in all joy, my brethren, if ye should fall into various temptations; ³ knowing that the proof of your faith worked [a] patience. ⁴ But [the] patience—let a complete work be in it (sc. patience), that ye may be complete and sound, and that ye may not be deficient of anything. ⁵ But if there is one among you deficient of wisdom, let him ask from God, who giveth to all simply, reproaching not; and it shall be given to him. ⁶ But let him ask in [a] faith, doubting not. For he who doubteth was as the waves of the sea, the wind taking them and bringing them. ⁷ For let not that man think to himself, that he will take anything from the Lord; ⁸ but the man who doubteth is unsteady on all his ways. ⁹ But let the brother who is in humble (position) boast himself in his exaltation: ¹⁰ but the rich in his humiliation: because as a flower of [a] grass he will pass (away). ¹¹ For (the) sun arose with the scorching heat and dried the grass; and its flower fell off, but (the) beauty of its face perished: thus also the rich in all his ways will wither. ¹² Blessed is the man who will endure in a temptation, because, should he be a chosen (one), he will receive the crown of (the) life, which he promised to them who will love him.

¹³ Let not any one say, being tempted, that it is God who tempteth me: for God tempteth not in evil things, but he (pron.) tempteth not any one: ¹⁴ but each one is being (εἶ) tempted by his own lust drawing him and enticing him. ¹⁵ Then the lust should it conceive bringeth forth (the) sin: but (the) sin should it be completed begetteth (the) death. ¹⁶ Go not astray, my brethren, my beloved. ¹⁷ All good gifts and all complete gifts are from above, coming below from the Father of the lights, with whom there is not change, nor a form of a shadow which passed. ¹⁸ He wished, he begat us in (the) word of the truth, to cause us to be a firstfruit of his creatures. ¹⁹ But we know, my brethren, my beloved. But let every man be in haste about to hear, slow about to speak, slow about to be angry.

that ye should do the good, If the will of God wisheth, and ye should suffer, than doing the evil. ¹⁸ Because Christ also died once because of (the) sin for us, [but] the righteous for the wicked, that he might bring us in to God. Having died indeed in (the) flesh, but he liveth in the spirit; ¹⁹ in this he went, he preached good tidings to the spirits also who were in the prison; ²⁰ they who were disobedient once, when the longsuffering of God was indulgent^a in the days of Nōe, who made an ark, through which (a) few were saved from the water, that is to say, eight souls. ²¹ Thus ye also now, he will save you in a type of^b a baptism, not a laying down of a filthiness of (the) flesh, but (α) in a good. conscience for (the) praying to God, through (the) resurrection of Jesus Christ; ²² who is (ΧΗ) on the right hand of God, having gone to (the) heaven: angels and authorities and powers were subjected to him.

deity, escaping from the lust of (the) corruption which is in the world. ⁵ And in this, bringing in all diligence, supply [the] virtue in your faith: in [the] virtue, [the] knowledge: ⁶ in [the] knowledge, [the] temperance: in [the] temperance, [the] patience: in [the] patience, [the] godliness: ⁷ in [the] godliness, [the] brotherly love: in [the] brotherly love, [the] love. ⁸ But all these being yours (lit. to you), and abounding in you, they will not make you idle and unfruitful towards (the) knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ He to whom these things are not is blind, feeling (his way), having taken a forgetfulness of (the) cleansing of his former sins. ¹⁰ Therefore rather, our brethren, hasten yourselves that through [the] good works ye may confirm your calling and your election: for doing these things ye shall never stumble. ¹¹ For thus richly the entering shall be supplied to you of (the) eternal kingdom of our Lord and our saviour Jesus Christ.

¹² Therefore I shall (lit. will) remind you always concerning these things, although ye know, and ye are confirmed in the truth which is. ¹³ For I think that it is a righteous work, this which I think, that as long as I am in this dwelling-place I shall stir in^a you a remembrance; ¹⁴ knowing that this dwelling-place will be dissolved quickly, according as also our Lord Jesus Christ showed to us. ¹⁵ But I shall (lit. will) hasten myself always, that ye may remember these things after my departure. ¹⁶ It was not crafty fables which we walked after, (when) we showed to you (the) power and (the) coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but (α) we were eye-witnesses of the greatness of that (one): ¹⁷ he received [an] honour and [a] glory from the Father; and a voice came to him of this kind by the exceeding^b great glory: 'This is my Son, my beloved, this for whom I was well pleased.'

¹⁴ Therefore, my beloved, (since) we are gazing out forward to these, hasten yourselves to be found without spot with him, and without stain before him in [a] peace. ¹⁵ And the longsuffering of the Lord reckon it to you for [a] salvation, according as also our beloved brother Paul, according to the wisdom which was given to him, wrote to you: ¹⁶ as also in all his epistles, speaking in them concerning these (things); these in which some (things) are difficult to know (what they mean); these which the foolish and they who are not firm, distort as (the) rest of the Scriptures; who will draw themselves to (ΚΑΤΑ) their own perditions. ¹⁷ Ye, then, my brethren, foreknowing, keep yourselves, lest by any means ye go astray in (the) error of the foolish, and fall from your own firmness. ¹⁸ But grow in [the] grace and (the) knowledge of our Lord and our saviour Jesus Christ, whose is the glory from now and unto age of the ages. ye heard that the antichrist is coming, now, lo, many antichrists came (ϣωπι); in this we shall (lit. will) know, that it is (the) last hour. ¹⁹ They came (ΕΤΔΥ) from us, but (Δ) they are not from us; had they been from us, they would have abode with us: but (Δ) that they might be manifested that all are not from us.

²⁰ And ye also have an anointing from the holy (one), and ye know all things. ²¹ I wrote (ΕΤΔΙ) not to you, because ye know not (the) truth, but (Δ) because ye know it, that all false (ones) are not from (the) truth. ²² Who is the false (one) except him who denieth that Jesus is [not] Christ? This is the antichrist, because he who denieth (the) Father, denieth also the Son. ²³ And every one who denieth the Son hath not the Father also: he who confesseth the Son hath the Father also. ²⁴ Ye also—let that which ye heard from (the) beginning abide in you. 'I love God,' and is hating his brother, he is false: for he who loveth not his brother whom he seeth, God whom he saw not, how will he be able to love him? ²¹ And this commandment we have from him, that he who loveth God should love his brother also. V. Every one who believeth that Jesus (is) Christ is born^a from God: and every one who loveth him who begat^b loveth also him who was begotten^b from him. ² In this we shall (lit. will) know that we love the children of God: If we should love God, and do his commandments. ³ For this is [the] love of God, that we should keep his commandments; and his commandments are not burdensome. ⁴ Because every one who was born from God conquereth the world: and this is the conquest which conquered the world, even^c our faith.

⁵ But who is he who is conquering the world, except him who believeth that Jesus is (the) Son of God? ⁶ This is he who came through [a] water and [a] blood and [a] spirit, Ioppē: the disciples then, having heard that Petros is there, sent two men to him, saying, (and) praying him: 'Delay not to come to us.' ³⁹ But Petros arose, he walked with them.

But he having come, they took him away into the upper place; all the widows stood by him weeping, showing to him the coats and the garments (which) the Gazelle (was) making, being with them. ⁴⁰ Petros put (lit. threw) them all out; having thrown himself upon his knees, he prayed; having turned himself to the body, he said: 'Tabitha, rise.' ye (pron.) know that since the early days God chose among you from my mouth to cause the Gentiles to hear (the) word of the Gospel, and believe. ⁸ And God, he who knoweth the hearts, witnessed to them, and he gave to them the holy spirit, as he gave to us also; ⁹ and he put not any difference between us and them, having cleansed their hearts in the faith. ¹⁰ Now then why tempt ye God, to place a yoke on (the) shoulders of the disciples, this which not our fathers nor we (pron.) could bear? ¹¹ But (2) through the grace of our Lord Jesus we believe that we shall be saved^a, according as the others. ¹² But all the multitude was silent, and they were hearing Barnabas and Paulos speaking of all the signs and the wonders which God did among the Gentiles through them.

¹³ But after they were silent, Iakōbos answered, saying, [The] men, our brethren, hear me: ¹⁴ Symeōn spake how^b at (ΙCΧΕΝ) first God visited, to take a people from the Gentiles in his name. ¹⁵ And with this agree the words of

but we were abiding in that city some days. ¹³ But on the day of the sabbaths we came outside of the city by the river, the place (of which) we were thinking that there would be [a] prayer there. And having sat, we were speaking to the women who came forth. ¹⁴ And a woman, her name being Lydia, being a seller (CΔ) of purple, of a city called (XΕ) Thyatērōn, worshipping God, was hearing. This (one) God opened her heart, to attend to the things which Paulos was saying. ¹⁵ But having been baptised, and her house, she besought us, saying: 'If ye reckoned me faithful to the Lord, come into my house, abide.' And she took us by force.

¹⁶ But it came to pass (that) as we were going to the prayer a young maidservant, there being a spirit of divination^a with her, met us, she (ΘΔΙ) who was giving much profit to her masters, being (a) diviner. ¹⁷ She (ΘΔΙ) having walked after Paulos and us, was crying out, saying: 'These men are servants of most high^b God; these who proclaim

XVII. Having passed through [the] Amphipolis and [the] Apollōnia, they came to Thessalonikē, the place in which there was a synagogue of the Jews: ² but according to the custom of Paulos, he went in unto them, and he was speaking to them from the Scriptures for (ϠΔ) three sabbaths, ³ manifesting and putting (it) before them, that Christ must suffer and rise from them who are dead, and that Jesus Christ is this, this whom I (pron.) proclaim to you. ⁴ And some indeed (ΔΕ) from them believed, and there were numbered with (Ε) Paulos and Silas a great multitude of them who worship of the Greeks, women also (ΔΕ) of the first (rank) not few. ⁵ But the Jews were jealous, and they took men, evil, of the baser sort, and having assembled a multitude they troubled the city, and they came at (the) house of Iassōn seeking for them that they might bring them out to the multitude. ⁶ But having not found them, they dragged Iassōn out and other brethren unto the rulers of the city,

¹⁵ The evil spirit answered, he said to them: 'Jesus I know (CWOYH), and Paulos also I know (EΛΛI), but who are ye?'

¹⁶ And the man with whom the evil spirit (was) threw himself upon them, he mastered them together, he prevailed over them, so that they fled from that house naked with their heads wounded^a. ¹⁷ But this became manifested to all the Jews and the Greeks, who dwelt in Ephesos; and a fear came upon them all, and (the) name of the Lord Jesus Christ was going on (lit. coming) being exalted. ¹⁸ But many (sing.)

from them who believed were coming, confessing, and saying their works. ¹⁹ But many (plur.) among them who were doing curious arts, having brought their books, burnt them before all: and they took count of their prices, having found them being there fifty^b thousand of silver. ²⁰ But thus mightily grew (the) word of the Lord and it prevailed.

this young man in unto thee, having a thing to say to thee.’
 19 But the chiliarchos seized hold of his hand, and having withdrawn apart alone, he was asking him: ‘What (is) it which thou wishest to say to me?’ 20 But he said: ‘The Jews settled to pray thee to-morrow, that thou should bring Paulos to the council, as thou wilt know concerning him accurately. 21 Thou then be not persuaded by them: for there are more than forty men from them lying in wait for him; these who adjured one another not to eat nor to drink until they kill him: and now they are prepared, looking out for the promise about to be from thee.’ 22 The chiliarchos then dismissed the young man, having ordered him not to say to any one that thou showedst to me these (things). 23 And he called two from the centurions; he said to them: ‘Prepare two hundred soldiers, that they may go unto Kesaria, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spear-men, from (the) third hour of the night, 24 and may take beasts also, that they may mount Paulos, and bring him safe^a unto Phylis the

And thus it happened for us all to come safe (πορῶν) to the shore.

XXVIII. And having been saved, then we knew that that island is called 'Melitinē.' ² But the barbarians of that place were doing a kindness with us not a little: for having kindled a fire, they received us all, because of the rain which was happening, and because of the cold. ³ But Paulos turned himself, he found a quantity of rubbish, and he threw (ἐτάψ) it (plur.) to the fire, and from the heat came out a viper, it bit his hand. ⁴ But the barbarians having seen the wild beast hanging to his hand, they were saying to one another: 'Certainly this man is a murderer, this (one) whom, after having been saved from the sea, his judgement letteth him not live.' ⁵ He (pron.) indeed then shook the wild beast to the fire, no evil happened to him.

⁶ But they (pron.) were thinking that he will swell^a or will fall immediately and die: but having waited, gazing at him, and having seen that no evil thing seized him, they turned themselves immediately, saying that he was a god.

⁷ But in that place there were many fields of the first (man) of the island, his name being Pouplios: this (man) having taken us up, received us in a love of hospitality three days. ⁸ But it came to pass (that) the father of Pouplios having been sick in fevers and dysenteries was prostrate under them. But this (man)—Paulos went in unto him, he prayed, he laid his hands upon him, he healed him.

⁹ But this having been done, (the) rest who were in the island, with whom there was sickness, were coming unto him and he was healing them. ¹⁰ But these honoured us in great honour, and when we were about to be brought from there, they prepared for us that of which we had need.

THE REVELATION OF THE HOLY IŌANNĒS.

I. The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants the things which must happen quickly: and he signified them. Having sent them through his angel to his servant Iōannēs.

² He who witnessed to the word of God, and the witness of Jesus Christ, to^a the things which he saw.

³ Blessed are they who read, and they who hear the words of this prophecy, and who keep the things which are written on it: for the time approached. ⁴ Iōannēs to the seven churches which are in [the] Asia: (the) grace

(out), the great serpent, (the) ancient, he who is called the devil Satan, he who led astray the whole world; he was cast below the earth: his angels also were cast below with him.

¹⁰ And I heard a great voice up in (the) heaven, saying: 'Now happened the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ.

Because the accuser of our brethren was cast to the earth, he who accused before God in the day and the night.

¹¹ Because they (pron.) overcame him because of (the) blood of the lamb, and because of (the) blood of their witness, for they loved not their life even unto (the) death.

¹² Therefore delight yourselves, [the] heavens, and they who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and the sea: because the devil came below to you, there being a great wrath in him; knowing that only (κε) a little while (it is) which he hath.'

¹³ But the dragon, having seen that he was cast to (the) earth, pursued the woman who brought forth the son^a.

⁷ And one from the four living-beings gave to the seven angels the seven vials of gold, full of the wrath of God who liveth unto age of the ages. Amēn. ⁸ And the temple was filled with the smoke of the glory of God, and with his power; and no one was able to come into the temple, until these plagues of the seven angels were completed.

XVI. And I heard a great voice from (the) heaven, saying to the angels: 'Go, pour your vials of (the) wrath of God below.' ² And the first angel went, he poured his vial on the earth; and an evil sore came (ϣωπι) in the men, they who were sealed for the wild beast, and they who worshipped his image. ³ And the second angel poured his vial on the sea; and it became blood as that of a dead man; and every soul which liveth died in the sea. ⁴ And the third angel poured his vial on the rivers and the fountains of water;

a great earthquake happened: there was not any (οὔτις) like it since man was upon (the) earth. ¹⁹ And the great city became into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And Babylōn, the great, was remembered before God, to give to her the cup of wine of (the) wrath of the anger.

XVII. And one from the seven angels, they who have the seven vials, came; and he spake to me, saying: 'Come, that I may show to thee (the) judgement of the great harlot who sitteth upon many waters; ² she with whom the kings of (the) earth sinned; and they committed fornication; they who dwell upon (the) earth were drunken with (the) wine of her fornication.' ³ And he took me away to (the) desert in the (lit. a) spirit: and I saw a woman sitting upon a wild beast, scarlet, full of names of blasphemy, there being seven heads upon him, and ten horns. ⁴ And the woman was being
